A review of WFO files reflects the following:

On 10/2/63, [redacted] advised SA ROBERT L. SHACKELFORD that JOSEPH FRANCIS NESLINE was traveling to Miami, Florida, on a weekly basis, departing Washington, D. C. (WDC) Friday mornings and returning to WDC the following Monday. He said that he had been told by other gamblers that the Sports Office maintained by NESLINE in Florida, which was responsible for NESLINE's trips, was set up as Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 N. E. 79th Street, The Morton Building, Suite 112, Miami, Florida, telephone PL 4-0637. According to [redacted] this service puts out a weekly publication regarding the coming football games and other information pertaining to these games. He said that the publication stipulates that it does not constitute an offer, was limited to Florida, and was not intended to violate the law. According to [redacted] the circular indicates that a [redacted] should be contacted at the above phone number.

planned to conduct the booking of sporting events while in Miami.

By letter dated 11/13/63, Miami advised that physical surveillance and information furnished by Miami informants had determined that NESLINE had been making frequent trips to Miami since the begining of the football season and that he had been in frequent contact with FRANK "Lefty" ROSENTHAL, who was then free under $20,000 bond in North Carolina for conspiracy to fix college basketball games. NESLINE had also been in frequent contact with STANLEY GREEN, aka SAM GREEN, who operates the Multiple Sports News Service in Miami. It was indicated that ROSENTHAL is also connected with the Multiple Sports News Service.

By Baltimore letter dated 11/20/63, in the NESLINE matter [redacted] on 11/1/63, advised SA [redacted] that NESLINE had a close associate named "JABBA" who was a flashy dresser and used to be consistently in company with NESLINE. According to [redacted] NESLINE went to Florida "JABBA" accompanied him and got a "piece" of the bettings or bookmaking business conducted by NESLINE in Miami, Florida. On 12/1/63, [redacted] that NESLINE had traveled to Miami [redacted] after several weeks illness and convalescense at his residence in Chillum, Maryland. Informant said that during NESLINE's illness EUGENE "JABBA" CORSI had remained in Miami, Florida, to handle NESLINE's sporting events operation. Informant related that CORSI has been an intimate associate of NESLINE for a period of several years. Informant further advised that [redacted] of NESLINE for many years, also had an interest in NESLINE's Miami sporting events office and had traveled to Florida on week ends during the current football season. Photographs of CORSI and [redacted] have been furnished Miami.

JOSEPH FRANCIS NESLINE is known to the Bureau as one of the leading gamblers in the WDC area and an admitted bettor on the outcome of sporting events, including football, baseball and basketball.

FLA, D.C., MD.

CHARLES TOURINE, aka CHARLIE WHITE, was identified by JOSEPH VALACHI as a member of the La Cosa Nostra during recent hearings before a U. S. Senate hearing. TOURINE has been identified as a close associate of NESLINE during the past several years and was arrested with NESLINE by the Maryland State Police, 6/13/63, for violation of Maryland gambling statutes. TOURINE and NESLINE are currently free on bond pending appeal of convictions regarding above arrests.

Attention of the Bureau, Miami and Richmond Divisions is invited to case captioned [redacted] aka; ET AL; ITWI; ITAR-M; CONSPIRACY (Bufile 168-71, MMfile 168-97, RHfile 168-14, WFO 168-5). On 11/2/63, [redacted] and [redacted] were arrested by Special Agents of the FBI and charged with violation of ITWI statutes. [redacted] [redacted] were previously arrested for violations of ITAR statutes by Special Agents of WFO.

At the time of his arrest [redacted] charged and included among items found in his wallet was a slip of paper with Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Room 112, Miami , Florida, telephone TL 4-0637.

By airtel 11/14/63, in the [redacted] matter, Richmond set forth the results of surveys of calls from [redacted] telephones and [redacted] telephone.

Included among the calls during the months of September and October were numerous calls made to Miami, Florida, 754-0637 (Multiple Sports News Service).

An analysis of the above information indicates that activity at Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, may constitute violations of Federal gambling statutes (ITWI). Miami has been designated office of origin in this matter inasmuch as Multiple News Sports Service is located in Miami, Florida, and any prosecutive details will be by Miami.

Re WFO letter to Director dated 12/26/63.

It is to be noted that Multiple Sports News Service located at 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, Florida, has been in operation since the middle of March, 1963. This opening coincided with the beginning of the 1963 National League baseball season. This service was established on the order of ANGEL-KAPLAN located in Chicago, Illinois. The "service" provides sports information including handicapping for professional baseball, basketball, football, hockey, and college basketball and football. The "service" does not provide any horse racing information.

The "service" is the subscriber to the following telephone numbers:

PL 4-0637
PL 4-0638
PL 4-0639
PL 4-0640

A survey of long-distance telephone calls has been made for the telephones used by Multiple Sports News Service since its inception. This survey has shown that a bare minimum of calls have been made from Multiple Sports News Service and those people calling have been interviewed and have provided no information of importance concerning the "service".

The "service" has a staff of three persons. The alleged president and front man is SAMUEL Fla. GREEN, FBI Number 480-589-C. GREEN has had no convictions in the field of gambling although he was arrested for the above in 1957.

GREEN spends a considerable amount of time at the "service" and appears to be a mere errand boy for FRANK ROSENTHAL and chauffeur for JOSEPH NESLINE when he is in Miami.

The real owner of the "service" who is listed as handicapper and sports consultant is FRANK ROSENTHAL, FBI Number 441-756-D. ROSENTHAL is a known big-time gambler and recently was convicted in a State Court in Charlotte, North Carolina, for bribery in a basketball game between New York University and West Virginia University.

Flo

The other employee of the "service" is a clerk who merely answers the telephone. This individual is ALVIN WEISBERG, also known as "LITTLE ABNER". WEISBERG was arrested by the Internal Revenue Service on gambling charges in 1963 in which WEISBERG plead guilty and was made to pay a fine. WEISBERG is known to have worked for a big local bookmaking operation as a pick-up man for [redacted]

Flo

During the 1963 college and professional football season JOSEPH NESLINE was frequently seen with ROSENTHAL and his associates. It is noted that NESLINE maintains a residence at the Hampshire Towers, Miami Beach, Florida.

On 1/4/64 EUGENE CORSI, aka "JABBA" was seen with FRANK ROSENTHAL and MARTY KANE at a college basketball game between Rhode Island University and the University of Miami, played at the Miami Beach Convention Hall. ROSENTHAL on 1/9/64 advised that CORSI is planning to stay at the Beaux Arts Apartments (Same apartment building as ROSENTHAL), 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida.

-ADMINISTRATIVE-

The investigative period of this report exceeds 90 days inasmuch as all previous investigation has been reported under Bureau file 165-508 captioned "FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL".

Information copies are designated for Baltimore, Los Angeles, Richmond and Washington Field in view of their interest in Multiple Sports News Service.

For the information of divisions not receiving prior correspondence concerning Multiple Sports News Service, it is noted that captioned "service", which is located at 1090 N.E. 79th Street, Room 112, Miami, Florida, has been in operation since the middle of March, 1963. This "service" was established on the order of Angel Kaplan Sports Service, Chicago, Illinois. It provides sports information, including handicapping for professional baseball, basketball, and football, and for college basketball and football. The "service" does not provide any horse racing information. In order to provide this service, a sports ticker has been leased from Western Union for up-to-date sports news and scores.

The "service" receives its schedules of sporting events from Angel Kaplan Sports Service, 236 North Park Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Multiple Sports News Service presently has a staff of three persons. The real owner of the service is FRANK ROSENTHAL, who is a known big time gambler and handicapper.

On December 7, 1963 ROSENTHAL was convicted in a State Court in Charlotte, North Carolina for fixing a basketball game between New York University and West Virginia University, which was played on March 11, 1960 in Charlotte. The president of the service on paper is SAM GREEN, who is the front man for ROSENTHAL. GREEN has no convictions in the field of gambling although he was arrested for the above in 1957.

GREEN spends a considerable amount of time at the "service" and appears to be an errand boy and chauffeur for ROSENTHAL, JOSEPH NESLINE and [redacted] when they are in Miami.

The other employee of the "service" is ALVIN WEISBERG, also known as Little Abner. WEISBERG functions merely as a clerk who answers the telephone and provides the handicapping information which has been given to him. WEISBERG is known to have worked for a big local bookmaking operation as a pick-up man for [redacted] FLA.

JOSEPH FRANCIS NESLINE JOE NESLINE

JOSEPH NESLINE, alleged to be part of the Multiple Sports News Service, is a Washington area gambling figure. While in the Miami area he resides at the Hampshire Towers, 5415 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, FLA

MD. D.C.

b7C

[redacted]f JOSEPH NESLINE, is also alleged to be connected with Multiple Sports News Service. While in the Miami area [redacted] [redacted] is listed in the name [redacted] [redacted]

D.C.

EUGENE "JABBA" CORSI is one of NESLINE's trusted employees who has in the past managed NESLINE's money and gambling operations. He is presently residing at 8000 West Drive, Apartment 232, North Bay Village, Florida.

A survey of the long-distance calls used by Multiple Sports News Service, which are PL 4-0637, 38, 39 and 40, has been made since the telephones were connected. This survey has shown a bare minimum of long-distance calls and no information has been derived from interviews with subscribers to numbers called.

Presently a survey is being conducted with regard to telephone number 751-9456 which is a pay telephone located in the vicinity of Multiple Sports News Service. Information was furnished by [redacted], Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Miami, to the effect that long-distance calls were made from this number to out-of-state gamblers. In turn a check of long-distance calls from these out-of-state gamblers to Miami reflected that on several occasions the numbers of FRANK ROSENTHAL and Multiple Sports News Service were called.

During December, 1963, Washington Field conducted surveys of telephones utilized by the following well known District of Columbia gamblers who are known to wager on the outcome of sporting events including football and basketball. No telephone calls were noted to the listings at Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida:

-INFORMANTS-

On April 23, 1963 [redacted] was contacted by SA [redacted] and furnished the following information:

b6
b7D

Informant furnished a copy of the weekly baseball line sheet which he purchased from the Sports News Service on Northeast 79th Street. He said he calls [redacted] daily and gets the probable starting pitcher for the favored team and the line for each game. To illustrate how the line works, on April 23, 1963 Boston played the New York Yankees and the line was 70-80. This means if you wanted to bet the Yankees you put up $180.00 in order to get $100.00 in return. If you bet Boston, you put up $100.00 in order to get $170.00 in return. He said the line on baseball will change frequently depending on the action for each game.

In Miami, generally, according to informant, there is considerably less action on baseball than received on football.

b7D

On September 11, 1963 [redacted] stated he learned that FRANK ROSENTHAL's operation, known as Multiple Sports News Service, Morton Building, 1090 N. E. 79th Street, has been passing out printed sheets captioned "Pro Football, Exhibition Schedule, - Week Ending September 15, 1963". It lists the football teams in the National and American Leagues play, the home team and time of September 2, 1963, September 7, 1963, September 8, 1963, the college, American and National League games of September 14, 1963, and the National League and American League games of September 15, 1963. Numerous blank squares are opposite the names of the teams. They do not indicate any favorites or point spread. These sheets bear a 25 cent figure, but the source learned one cannot purchase these sheets, as they are sent to the bookmakers here and out of town. He understood later the sheets will reflect the favorite and point spread. They reportedly will come out each week.

On October 2, 1963 [redacted] advised SA ROBERT L. SHACKELFORD, Washington Field Office, that JOSEPH FRANCIS NESLINE was traveling to Miami, Florida on a weekly basis, departing Washington, D.C. Friday mornings and returning to Washington, D.C. the following Monday. He said that he had been told by other gamblers that the Sports Office maintained by NESLINE in Florida, which was responsible for NESLINE's trips, was set up as Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 N.E. 79th Street, Morton Building, Suite 112, Miami, Florida, telephone PL 4-0637. According to [redacted] this service puts out a weekly publication regarding the coming football games and other information pertaining to these games. He said that the publication stipulates that it does not constitute an offer, was limited to Florida and was not intended to violate the law. According to [redacted] the circular indicates that a [redacted] should be contacted at the above telephone number.

On October 7, 1963 [redacted] advised that the only sports line being furnished as a service in the Miami area that he knows of is the line made up by "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL. He stated that ROSENTHAL furnished his line to a number of bookmakers from small towns in Florida, where there are insufficient facts available for them to make their own line.

On October 14, 1963 [redacted] advised that [redacted] stated to him that he is obtaining his "sports betting line" from an individual by the name of [redacted] a resident of Miami, Florida. This individual is the same person who is furnishing the line to JOE NESLINE and [redacted]

On November 1, 1963 [redacted] advised SA [redacted] [redacted] Baltimore Division, that NESLINE has a close associate named "JABBA" who is a flashy dresser and used to be constantly in the company of NESLINE. According to [redacted] in former years when NESLINE went to Florida, "JABBA" accompanied him and got a "piece" of the bettings or bookmaking business conducted by NESLINE in Miami, Florida.

On November 7, 1963 [redacted] stated that FRANK ROSENTHAL, who resides at the Beaux-Arts Apartments, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, seldom leaves his apartment since the football season began. She said ROSENTHAL stays in his apartment with the drapes drawn and seems to come out just for fresh air. She said occasionally he leaves the drapes open and when he does, she said he is observed on the telephone for long periods of time.

Informant said that a few weeks ago ROSENTHAL was arrested at his apartment by the North Bay Village Police Department for extradition to the State of North Carolina.

On the night ROSENTHAL was arrested, an unknown white male was with him in his apartment. This male, during the arrest had an epileptic fit and was taken to the hospital in an ambulance. She said this male was a frequent visitor at ROSENTHAL's apartment before the arrest and since ROSENTHAL's return from North Carolina where he was released under bond. She said the white male has been there practically on a continuous basis. Informant identified a photograph of JOSEPH NESLINE as the white male companion.

b7D

On December 1, 1963 [redacted] advised SA [redacted] Washington Field Office, that NESLINE had traveled to Miami on November 23, or 24, 1963 after several weeks of illness and convalescense at his residence in Chillum, Maryland. Informant stated that during NESLINE's illness, EUGENE "JABBA" CORSI had remained in Miami to handle NESLINE's sporting events operation. Informant related that CORSI has been an intimate associate of NESLINE for a period of several years. Informant further advised that [redacted] NESLINE for many years, also has an interest in NESLINE's Miami sporting events office and has traveled to Florida on weekends during the current football season.

On December 2, 1963 [redacted] advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL is a frequent visitor of JOSEPH NESLINE and also CHARLES TOURINE at the Hampshire Tower Apartments, Miami Beach. Informant stated that on [redacted] TOURINE went to the University of Miami - University of Pittsburgh football game with FRANK ROSENTHAL.

On December 4, 1963 [redacted] stated that JOSEPH NESLINE is with ROSENTHAL every day and is on some occasions seen in the swimming pool at the Beaux Garden Apartments.

On January 27, 1964 [redacted] advised there is still a great deal of activity around ROSENTHAL's apartment at the Beaux Garden Apartments and on [redacted] [redacted]

On February 5, 1964 [redacted] related the following:

[redacted] as the person she has seen driving a late model white Pontiac bearing 1963 Maryland license DE 73-99.

Date April 18, 1963

FRANK ROSENTHAL, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, was interviewed at his residence. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents; that he did not have to make a statement, and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised of his right to a lawyer and the fact that no threats, promises or inducements were made during the course of this interview. He related the following:

His real name is NORMAN LOUIS ROSENTHAL, but several years ago he said it was vogue to give another name while traveling, so he used the name of his favorite baseball pitcher, that of FRANK LARY, presently pitching for the Detroit Tigers.

ROSENTHAL said he was aware of the new Federal gambling legislation and admitted that this has put many gamblers out of business and has made others more cautious as to their use of the telephone for making long distance calls in regard to gambling matters. On the other hand, he commented that it appears as though the Federal Government has gained little, if any, results from these laws. He said all the gamblers are aware of the shortcomings of the new gambling laws.

He stated since his marriage in 1961 he has tried to keep on the level and as a result, his gambling activities have decreased to a noticeable degree. Insofar as his handicapping activities, he stated he thinks he is one of the best, but there is very little demand for his services. He denied being presently in the "business" of either a gambler or handicapper. As to his status three years ago, he would not comment.

ROSENTHAL said for a short period of time in 1960 and 1961 he and his father, who just recently passed away, were the owners of the Rob Rose Ranch, which raced horses. He said after a trumped-up arrest on December 31, 1960, for operating a gambling establishment, he was ruled off the tracks in Florida by the Florida Racing Commission. It was at this time he severed his interest in the horse racing business.

After this venture, he took over the operation of the lounge that is connected to the Beaux Arts Apartments in North Bay Village. He said this was a small operation which he got out of after several months, although, he did break even money wise.

ROSENTHAL stated his present occupation is that of a sports consultant. He, along with SAM GREEN, are operating the Multiple Sports News Service at 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Miami. This service has been in operation for about a week and is patterned after ANGEL KAPLAN in Chicago. He said they will deal only in sports (baseball, basketball, football, and hockey) and not horse racing. This service is being conducted in the Morton Building, Suite 112. The rent for this office space is $150.00 per month. ROSENTHAL did not indicate the amount of money charged for the use of the sports ticker service from Western Union.

ROSENTHAL said presently the list of subscribers to his service is small, but that they hope over several months to make this a going business. During the baseball season they are furnishing a weekly booklet with news items and schedules; also, they are furnishing data, such as batting averages and pitching records, etc. The cost of this entire service is $30.00 per week.

ROSENTHAL was asked about certain gamblers around the country. He admitted knowing DAVE HELPER in Las Vegas, ELLIOTT PRICE in Boston, and [redacted] CHARLIE TOURINE, and JOE INDELICATO in Miami. As to the above individuals, he did not indicate his present relationship with these men, although, he did deny any handicapping service that he was giving to [redacted]

b6

He stated he had little contact with ANGEL KAPLAN's service in Chicago and considers BILL KAPLAN as a social acquaintance and not as a business contact.

AT ATLANTA, GEORGIA:

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]

On April 19, 1963 [redacted] [redacted], Western Union Telegraph Company, Atlanta, related that on March 18, 1963 Western Union installed a Sports News Ticker in the name of Multiple Sports News Service at 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Miami, Florida. The application for this ticker was signed by SAMUEL GREEN.

According to this source, the purpose of a Sports News Ticker is to publish daily the results of sports events, the same type information which appears in daily newspapers and to also send out a weekly summary covering matters relating to sports contests and to sports in general.

AT MIAMI, FLORIDA:

On April 16, 1964 [redacted] [redacted] Western Union Telegraph Company, Miami, related that the sports ticker at 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Miami, was still in operation and the monthly cost for this ticker was $77.25.

FRANK ROSENTHAL, who resides at 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, was interviewed at the offices of the Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 N.E. 79th Street, Miami. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent, that he did not have to make a statement, and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised of his right to a lawyer and the fact that no threats, promises, or inducements would be made in the course of this interview. He related the following:

Business at the Multiple Sports News Service is rather slow and the list of customers continues to remain at around twelve. He said that to his knowledge, there are no bookmakers among his customers as this would be a definite violation of the rules set forth by Western Union in granting a sports ticker. He said that he does not know NEIL WINTERING and does not believe that this individual is receiving the service.

ROSENTHAL was asked about GIL BECKLEY and AL MONES, and he stated that he knew both individuals but would not comment as to their present whereabouts or activities.

He further related that Multiple Sports News Service is attempting through every means possible to abide by local, state, and federal laws, and particularly wish to cooperate with the FBI in view of their interest in his activities.

FRANK ROSENTHAL, who resides at 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, was interviewed at the offices of the Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent, that he did not have to make a statement, and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised of his right to a lawyer and the fact that no threats, promises, or inducements would be made in the course of this interview. He related the following:

ROSENTHAL denied any current activity in the field of gambling and said that his business endeavors are limited to the position of sports consultant for the Multiple Sports News Service. He stated that he is an employee of SAMUEL GREEN's at the service.

He further related that his financial status at present is such that he contemplates moving from the Beaux Arts Apartments. He said he plans to remain in North Bay Village but is not sure of when or where he will move.

He then stated he was in favor of legalized gambling and in doing away with the injustice that now exists between betting at horse tracks and betting with a bookie. He said that the federal laws now in effect might in some way curtail the activities of gamblers and bookmakers but due to their phraseology will not bring forth any convictions. He stated as a case in point, the recent trial of AL MONES and GIL BECKLEY. He further related that he still does not understand the interest of the FBI in his overall activities and in particular the business conducted by the Multiple Sports News Service. He said everything he is presently doing is strictly legal.

He was also advised of his right to a lawyer and the fact that no threats, promises, or inducements would be made in the course of this interview. He related the following:

ROSENTHAL was again asked whether he knew NEIL WINTERING. He denied knowing this individual and again stated that WINTERING to his knowledge was not a subscriber to the service. ROSENTHAL at this point was advised that NEIL WINTERING was interviewed on May 16, 1963, and admitted that he received up-to-date results of baseball games from Multiple Sports News Service. WINTERING said that he paid $20.00 per week for this service. This service does not include publications or handicapping information.

ROSENTHAL was advised that WINTERING is a known gambler and bookmaker and this would be a violation of the rules set forth by Western Union in leasing a sports ticker. ROSENTHAL said that he would take immediate steps to ascertain whether WINTERING was a subscriber to the service and if he was a subscriber, would have him immediately taken off the list of those receiving service from the Multiple Sports News Service.

ROSENTHAL at this time advised that the way the customer list is kept, there is no actual record by name of the subscriber. He said that all subscribers pay in advance for the service and upon receipt of the money, obtain a number. He said that at the time of obtaining a subscriber, no questions are asked about his background or the purpose for which he intends to use the service. Because of this method employed by Multiple Sports News Service, he said that a list of customers submitted to the FBI by account number would mean nothing to a person not connected with the service.

On the other hand, ROSENTHAL stated that the number one aim of the Multiple Sports News Service is to provide sports information to their customers. Along with this he stated it was their wish to keep people from subscribing to this service who are using it for illegal purposes. When asked how this could be accomplished under the present bookkeeping process, ROSENTHAL did not have any answer.

ROSENTHAL in closing again stated that this service was being run as a legitimate business, and they were not trying to violate any laws.

FRANK ROSENTHAL, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, was interviewed at his residence. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent. He was further advised that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to counsel and the fact that no threats, promises or inducements would be made during the course of this interview.

ROSENTHAL related that he returned to Miami on Saturday evening, June 22, 1963, aboard an Eastern Airlines flight from Washington, D.C., under the name of FRANK LARY. ROSENTHAL said he was not sure of his departure date to Washington, though he indicated it was around June 6, 1963, and he stated that he traveled under the same alias.

ROSENTHAL said that his trip to Washington was for business and pleasure. He said while in the Washington area he stayed at the Executive Towers, Washington, D.C., with JOSEPH NESLINE.

He would not discuss the pleasure part of his trip to Washington, though he indicated his business interest in Washington was in regard to a drive-in restaurant that he contemplates building somewhere in the vicinity of the Fun Fair drive-in located on 79th Street in Miami.

He indicated that he would like to have an interest which is legitimate and outside the field of sports. He further stated that CHARLES TOURINE did not seem too interested in this business venture but NESLINE did indicate his interest in this prospective business arrangement. experience in the restaurant business in Chicago, Illinois.

Insofar as his arrest on June 13, 1963, at the Sportsman Club in Charlotte Hall, Maryland, ROSENTHAL said it was very evident the FBI was working in the background throughout this investigation and was no doubt responsible for the ultimate raid on the club. He thought it was merely a deal to "get" NESLINE and TOURINE.

Insofar as he observed, there was no gambling taking place on the premises and the money found on the persons arrested had nothing to do with activities at the Sportsman Club. ROSENTHAL said he does not plan to return to the Washington area for any court action which might develop in his behalf. He said his lawyer in Washington is [redacted] and another lawyer in Leonardtown, Maryland by the name of [redacted] will also assist in his behalf. b6 b7C

He further stated that NESLINE had been tried and convicted while he was still in Washington. He said the sentences were going to be appealed and he was sure that they would be reversed by a higher court. He said that he had planned to return to Miami sooner than the 22nd of June but that he wanted to give NESLINE moral support during his trial.

FRANK ROSENTHAL, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, was interviewed at the Patio Bridge Club, Miami Beach. He was advised he did not have to make any statement and any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to an attorney and the fact that no threats, promises or inducements would be made during the course of the interview.

ROSENTHAL identified his companions as SAM GREEN, [redacted] and MARTY KANE. He said that he and MARTY had been inside the Patio Bridge Club and there had not been too much action.

He denied playing any cards on this night and said that to the best of his knowledge [redacted] was not at the club. He said the big game right now is not gin but a game called "million". He said it is played somewhat on the order of pinochle and a lot of side bets are made on each game and usually takes no longer than 15 minutes to play.

ROSENTHAL said to the best of his knowledge there was no bookmaking going on at the Patio Bridge Club although he spends such a small amount of time there that he could not conjecture of the goings on during the early morning and afternoon hours.

ROSENTHAL said that he had just received word from his lawyer in Washington, D.C. that he had been fined $300.00 for gambling at the Sportsman Club in St. Marys County, Maryland. He said that he had heard no more about JOE NESLINE or CHARLES TOURINE's case but felt positive that they would get a reversal from the Court of Appeals.

He was further advised of his right to an attorney and the fact that no threats, promises or inducements would be made during the course of the interview.

He stated that he had just been in the Patio Bridge Club for a few minutes and had not been doing any playing. He said it appears that there are namely just a bunch of old women and fellows with not too much money that are presently playing at the bridge club. He denied that he had been playing gin with [redacted] on this date.

ROSENTHAL identified the man who came out of the Patio Bridge Club with him as MARTY KANE. He said that MARTY filled in as a worker at the Multiple Sports News Service while he was in Washington, D.C. during the middle part of June. He said KANE had an adequate knowledge of handicapping to do the work at the news service.

ROSENTHAL said he had heard nothing more from or about AMOS WRIGHT concerning the threat on his life. He emphatically denied furnishing the "line" to WRIGHT or conducting any business with him.

ROSENTHAL said that the Multiple Sports News Service is presently doing business in baseball and football. He commented that the football sheets they have available for their customers provide space for the scores, quarter by quarter, and the final score, and do not indicate any point spread between the two participating teams. He did comment that the point spread on the recent Green Bay Packers - Pittsburgh Steelers Pro-Football Exhibition Game which was played in Miami on August 10, 1963, was 7 points.

He said that without a doubt he will be found innocent of these charges and if by any chance he is convicted by a jury, he will immediately appeal this verdict.

He stated that several days ago, he was given a notice to vacate his apartment at the Beaux Arts Apartments because he owned a Doberman Pinscher dog. He said that he is presently paying $350.00 rent and he is really glad to get out of this apartment. He said he had no respect for the new owner and will probably move shortly after his trial.

He said that he plans to continue to reside in the North Bay Village area and presently he and his wife are looking at a new home, the cost of which is $35,000.00 and will necessitate paying $5,000.00 down with payments of $160.00 per month.

ROSENTHAL further stated that [redacted] is presently working for the [redacted] located at [redacted] Miami, Florida. He said that within another week she will be making $65.00 per week at the job, which he described as [redacted] [redacted]

DERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATIO

Date December 19, 1963

FRANK ROSENTHAL, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, was interviewed at his residence, Apartment 218. ROSENTHAL was advised that he did not have to make any statement, any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and he was advised of his right to an attorney. No threats, promises or inducements were made to him during the course of the interview.

ROSENTHAL related that on November 6, 1963 he was convicted of fixing a basketball game between New York University and West Virginia University, played in Charlotte, North Carolina, on March 11, 1960. He stated that he was fined $6,000.00, $3,000.00 of which he paid at the end of the trial and the other $3,000.00 will be due at the first term of the court, which is February 1, 1964.

He commented on the trial stating that the State of North Carolina had a very weak case and on the advise of his attorneys he entered a plea of nolo contendere only to avoid the pitfalls of an unsympathetic jury. He stated that it was quite evident from [redacted] that their case was very slim in evidence and the State of North Carolina was satisfied with the fine which was given by the Judge.

He said the basketball season will be for the most part unproductive as the list of customers will dwindle from the amount they had during the college and professional season.

ROSENTHAL commented on the 1964 Bowl Games and related in his opinion probably they would be the best matched teams in the last 15 years, commenting that the point spread in no game will be over four points. He also commented on the Orange Blossom Game being played in Miami, Florida, on December 4, 1963, and stated that Morgan State, although an underdog, is a good bet against Florida A&M.

ROSENTHAL stated that he would rather not answer a question concerning his present possession of flash paper. He further refused to comment on any fights that have been seen on the balcony of ROSENTHAL's apartment during the past few weekends.

Date January 21, 1964

FRANK ROSENTHAL, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, was interviewed at Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 N.E. 79th Street, Miami, Florida. He was advised that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to an attorney and the fact that no threats, promises or inducements would be made during the course of this interview.

ROSENTHAL advised that he attended the basketball game played on January 4, 1964, at the Miami Beach Convention Hall, Miami Beach, Florida, between Rhode Island University and the University of Miami. He said that he went to the game with MARTY KANE, KANE's wife, and EUGENE "JABBA" CORSI. He mentioned that RUBY LAZURAS sat in the same crowd but this was by accident.

He further stated that CORSI is presently residing at the Beaux Arts Apartments, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida. He stated that CORSI was a friend of JOSEPH NESLINE and that he was just down here for a short duration.

He continued stating that NESLINE was not presently in Miami as his wife was in very bad health. He said he did not know when he would be returning to the Miami area.

ROSENTHAL commented on the general subject of college basketball. He reflected that college basketball is nowadays controlled by the officials. He said it is quite obvious that basketball officials in their own way put a fix on a game. He said this is done by the calling of many fouls and other violations which are done to control the point spread of the game. He mentioned in particular the games played at Miami Beach when the University of Miami is the host team. He said

Date May 28, 1963

NEIL J. WINTERING was interviewed at 2500 N. E. 192nd Street, Apartment 5, Ojus, Florida. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and that he did not have to furnish any information, that any information which he might furnish could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney.

He advised that he presently resides at 2900 N. E. 33rd Avenue, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. He is the owner of two automobiles, one of which is a 1957 blue over white Ford and the other automobile a 1962 tan Cadillac. He said both cars were registered to him at his Ft. Lauderdale home residence.

WINTERING admitted that he has been a bookmaker since April 17, 1963. On this date, he purchased a Federal Wagering Tax Stamp, Number 8234. The address shown on the stamp is that of his home address at Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

He stated that he and [redacted] Florida, had been arrested on May 10, 1963 at 2529 N.E. 181st Street, Ojus, Florida, by the Florida Attorney General's Office and a detective from Metro for operating a gambling house. numbers in this apartment are [redacted]

As to his present activities, he stated that his partner is [redacted] Florida. Prior to moving into [redacted] Florida, on May 11, 1963, he admitted occupying the residence at 2529 N. E. 181st Street, Ojus, Florida, and prior to that, occupying office space in the Birch Building, 3397 West Broward Boulevard, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. As to the activities carried on at the above addresses, he declined to discuss any details.

WINTERING said he presently handles action on major league baseball games and horse races throughout the country. He said his customers are few and due to the fact that this is the off season, business is very poor. He said due to the Federal pressure being exerted on gambling activities, he is seriously thinking about going into the grocery business.

He stated that he was a native of Cleveland, Ohio, and has been in the Miami area for about fifteen years. He no longer has an interest in the 36th Street Sundries located at 196 N. W. 36th Street, Miami. He considers his present occupation as that of a bookmaker.

When asked specifically whether he had at any time been approached by law enforcement personnel or a representative of their interests as to the possibility of a payoff so that his bookmaking operation could continue, he declined to answer any questions along this line. He said that he was not familiar with any ice men in the Miami area and as a bookmaker, did not want to discuss the subject. When questioned as to why he had sent [redacted] out to line up a new place of business just two days prior to his arrest by local authorities, he said simply that he felt it was time to leave the address on 181st Street.

He stated that he does his own handicapping in regard to major league baseball games, although he does obtain baseball schedules with dates and time of play from Angel and Kaplan Sports News, 236 North Clark Street, Chicago 1, Illinois. He said for the inning by inning rundown on baseball games, he subscribes to the service rendered by Multiple Sports News Service located in Miami. He said this service is run by FRANK ROSENTHAL, who has a sports ticker service providing the up-to-date results on sporting events. It was his understanding that the operation run by ROSENTHAL was a legitimate business, inasmuch as the doors are always open to the public and all he furnishes is information readily available in the newspapers. He said that for the service rendered by Multiple Sports News Service, he pays $20.00. He receives no publications or handicapping information from the service.

WINTERING admitted knowing [redacted] [redacted] although he declined to make any comments concerning their activities in the gambling field. He further advised that [redacted] who formerly worked with him, is presently employed by [redacted] brother-in-law, [redacted].

In conclusion, WINTERING stated that he is well aware of the present federal legislation concerning gambling and that he makes no long-distance telephone calls in regard to his gambling activities. He said the only long-distance calls he does make are to members of his own family located in Berea, Ohio; to North Hollywood, California, where relatives of his wife live; to Boulder, Colorado, where his [redacted] was living before moving to Texas; and to St. Catherine, Ontario, Canada, where his wife's sister presently resides.

Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Miami, continues to be the business address of ROSENTHAL where he is employed as a sports consultant. Spot checks at this address reflect that SAM GREEN, alleged owner of the above, spends most of the day and night at the "Service". GREEN drives a 1963 light blue Dodge bearing 1963 Florida License 1-144950. This car is registered to GREEN at the address of 859 N. E. 90th Street, Miami.

Also, at the "Service", although on a less frequent basis, is an employee. [redacted] drives a light color [redacted] bearing 1963 Florida License [redacted] The address of [redacted] Miami Beach. [redacted] MARTIN P. KANE. KANE drives a 1961 turquoise Cadillac convertible bearing 1963 Florida License 1WW3550. This car is registered to KANE at 90 South Shore, Miami Beach.

Spot checks have indicated that ROSENTHAL spends a good deal of time at the Patio Bridge Club, Miami Beach, and at the Sea Gull Hotel, Miami Beach, which is located at 100 Twenty-first Street, Miami Beach.

On October 11, 1963 FRANK ROSENTHAL was observed in the company of JOSEPH NESLINE in front of the Beaux Arts Apartments. Also in their company was SAM GREEN, the alleged president of Multiple Sports News Service.

On October 14, 1963 FRANK ROSENTHAL was again observed in the company of JOSEPH NESLINE and SAM GREEN.

Periodic spot checks at the residence of FRANK ROSENTHAL, withstanding the above mentioned observations, have noted no unusual activities with subject and associates.

FRANK ROSENTHAL continues to work as a sports handicapper and consultant at the "Multiple Sports News Service", 1090 N.E. 79th Street, Miami, Florida.

Spot checks at this address reflect that SAM GREEN, front man for ROSENTHAL, and ALVIN WEISBERG, Clerk, spend a considerable amount of time at the office of the "Service".

On February 25, 1964 FRANK ROSENTHAL was observed at the CASSIUS CLAY - SONNY LISTON heavyweight championship fight held at the Miami Beach, Florida Convention Hall. ROSENTHAL was sitting in the $200 seats, accompanied by JOE NESLINE and an unidentified white male.

On March 17, 1964 ROSENTHAL was observed with [redacted] at the rear of the Morton Building, which is the office building used by Multiple Sports News Service. At that time, [redacted] was feeling better, and planned to recuperate in Florida.

b7C

On March 23, 1964 FRANK ROSENTHAL was observed leaving the Beaux Gardens Apartments with [redacted] in ROSENTHAL's car.

FRANK ROSENTHAL continues to work as a handicapper and consultant for Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, Florida.

Spot checks made at the Morton Building still indicate SAM GREEN continues to be the front man for ROSENTHAL in this operation. ALVIN WEISBERG also continues in the capacity of clerk for this sports service.

[redacted] and EUGENE "JABBA" CORSI have also been observed at the sports service with ROSENTHAL.

The Multiple Sports News Service is currently providing information relative to the professional basketball games, professional hockey and major league baseball.

At Miami, Florida:

Multiple Sports News Service is located at 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, Florida. This "service" is in the business of furnishing "line" information, up-to-the-minute scores, and pertinent information concerning professional baseball and professional football.

SAM GREEN enjoys the title of President of the "service," ALVIN WEISBERG is the Clerk, and FRANK ROSENTHAL has been tabbed the Sports Consultant and Handicapper.

During the period of July 1 through July 24,

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

and August 24, through August 28, 1964, daily checks have been made at the "service." These checks reflect that SAM GREEN arrives at the "service" from 9:00-9:15 a.m. ALVIN WEISBERG, Clerk, normally arrives shortly thereafter and remains until the early afternoon hours. FRANK ROSENTHAL was not seen at Multiple Sports News Service during the period of this report.

On July 8, 1964, Departmental Attorney [redacted] [redacted] was contacted regarding the prosecutive potential of the case entitled "MULTIPLE SPORTS NEWS SERVICE." At this discussion [redacted] was made aware of the case emanating from the Los Angeles Division of the FBI entitled, "SOL GERSHENHORN." [redacted] was interested in the prosecutive development of this case and stated that he would closely follow this case.

In order to evaluate the full potential of the case entitled "MULTIPLE SPORTS NEWS SERVICE," [redacted] deemed it imperative that a list of customers be obtained in order to substantiate the interstate nature of the "service."

On August 28, 1964, SAM GREEN was interviewed at the offices of Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami. GREEN volunteered the following information:

He stated that Multiple Sports News Service is presently providing the "line" and related information concerning professional baseball and football. He further stated that this is a completely legitimate business enterprise, at which he spends most of his time in order to furnish the customers with up-to-date information. He did not volunteer as to the number of customers he presently has but did relate he has at least one customer in Jacksonville, Florida.

GREEN stated that he is presently residing at 7851 Northeast 10th Court, Miami. He stated that he moved from his former residence to the present location in order that he could be closer to work.

GREEN stated that FRANK ROSENTHAL spends little time at the "service" and that he and ALVIN WEISBERG do all the actual answering of phones and providing of the information to customers.

At Washington, D. C.:

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] unless otherwise designated:

On June 24, 1964, a review of the records of the Department of Motor Vehicles for the District of Columbia reflected that D. C. license [redacted] was issued to [redacted] Washington, D. C., for a [redacted]

On June 24 and 30, and July 8 and 13, 1964, spot checks in the area of [redacted] failed to locate the above vehicle.

On July 7, 1964, a review of the 1964 Polks City Directory for Washington, D. C., and a review of the current Washington, D. C., telephone directory failed to reflect any listing for [redacted] The city directory listing for [redacted], listed the resident as [redacted]

b6

On July 16, 1964, [redacted] Temple Heights Post Office Sub-Station, 1810 - 18th Street, Northwest, advised that a review of the Post Office records reflects that as of April, 1964, a notation was listed for [redacted] as "Moved - left no forwarding address."

On [redacted] [redacted] advised that he is the owner of the property at this address. He said that approximately one year ago he remodeled and opened for rental a basement apartment in his house. The first tenant in this apartment was [redacted] 1963. At that time [redacted] furnished his employment as used [redacted] Arlington, Virginia. [redacted] subsequently advised [redacted] that he had left this company and had an interest in [redacted] [redacted] Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

[redacted]

b7C

[redacted] went on to say that during early June, 1964, he determined that [redacted] was no longer living in the basement apartment. By doing some checking, he determined that [redacted] had left toward the end of April, 1964, and had not left a forwarding address. [redacted] said that [redacted] owed him approximately $100 in breakage charges on damaged furnishings in the apartment. [redacted] said he heard from an unrecalled source that [redacted] had gone to Atlanta, Georgia, and was working in a shop called [redacted] [redacted] Atlanta, Georgia. He directed a registered letter to [redacted] at this address which was returned with the notation, "no longer at this address." [redacted] said that he does not know the present whereabouts [redacted], and aside from the above Atlanta, Georgia, address would not know where he could be located.

ADMINISTRATIVE

The period of this report exceeds sixty days inasmuch as results of investigation were not available within the sixty-day period, specifically toll calls from the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company made by Multiple Sports News Service.

A copy of this report is being sent to the Tampa Office inasmuch as a separate communication has been directed to Tampa to ascertain if the "Football Weekly Scoreboard," the Multiple Sports News Service publication, has been distributed or circulated in the Tampa area.

Chicago letter to Miami, dated 8/28/64, reflects that the Chicago indices, credit and criminal checks failed to indicate any information concerning [redacted] [redacted] Illinois. Information concerning the subscriber of [redacted] was furnished on July 22, 1964, by [redacted] Illinois Bell Telephone Company.

Background information concerning Angel-Kaplan Sports News Service has been previously set out in the Multiple Sports News Service case, as well as the Angel-Kaplan Sports News Service case in Miami. The frequency of the telephone calls from Multiple Sports News Service to Angel-Kaplan Sports News Service would indicate that odds-making information is probably being transmitted between these services on a daily basis.

Information concerning telephone No. 754-0637, subscribed to by Multiple Sports News Service, was obtained from [redacted] (protect), Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Miami Beach, Florida.

Norfolk letter to Miami, dated 9/30/64, captioned "Use of Telephone Number [redacted] ITWI," advised that on [redacted] stated that he does not know FRANK ROSENTHAL. He also stated that he does not know SAM GREEN and that he has no information concerning the Multiple Sports News Service in Miami. This informant stated that [redacted] [redacted] is a particular pitcher or outstanding player is going to play in a particular game. He stated that this individual also inquires occasionally concerning weather and conditions of a football field as this may affect the outcome of a particular football game. The informant stated that information of this nature may be available in the papers received in one locality and not appear in the papers in another area. The informant stated [redacted] never calls Miami for this type of information.

The informant stated that he understands that a baseball sports ticker is located in Miami and that the scores of the various games can be obtained by calling Miami PL 4-0637.

It is noted that telephone No. PL 4-0637 is the telephone number of Multiple Sports News Service.

WEEKLY COLLEGE and PRO BASKETBALL SCHEDULES

We publish a Weekly College & Pro Basketball Schedule listing games with starting times (Eastern, Central & Pacific Times) of Pro. games. This is a valuable timesaver in taking information down over the phone, as TV — Radio Announcers and most basketball enthusiasts have come to recognize its importance.

These Basketball Schedules are mailed at least 10 days before the actual week of the games.

DETAILS:

At Miami, Florida:

Multiple Sports News Service, which is located at 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Room 112, continues to operate in the business of distributing weekly basketball sheets and providing "line" information telephonically to numbered customers.

Spot checks conducted at Multiple Sports News Service reflected that the "service" opens daily at 10 a.m. with either ALVIN WEISBERG or SAM GREEN answering the phone. The "service" remains open until 1 p.m., wherein the changed basketball "line" is given to customers. The "service"

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

reopens at 4 p.m. and gives every customer changes in the "line" and any important information that would influence betting on various games. This particular data is given out until approximately 6:30 p.m.

The "service" continues inooperation, giving out the latest basketball scores, until all scores including the professional basketball games are completed. Spot checks have indicated that the "service", on occasion, is open until 2:30 in the morning.

The "service" is presently furnishing information aon college and professional basketball, professional hockey, and special events such as featured horse races and the recently held heavyweight elimination fight at Madison Square Garden on February 1, 1965.

On January 14, SAM GREEN was observed at Junior's Restaurant, 79th Street and Biscayne Boulevard, where he met an individual by the name of [redacted] These two individuals remained in the restaurant for approximately 45 minutes.

On January 29, 1965, SAM GREEN was observed at the International Airport where he boarded an Eastern Airlines flight for Washington, D. C. at 12:30 a.m. [redacted] a Federal Grand Jury in [redacted]

On February 1, 1965, [redacted] Pitney-Bowes, 5050 Biscayne Boulevard, Miami, stated that he [redacted] equipment leased by Multiple Sports News Service. He said this, the below mentioned equipment, was leasedin the last thirty days. His business dealings with Multiple Sports News Service ~~were~~ through SAM GREEN, although it appeared to him that the final okay came from FRANK ROSENTHAL.

Addressograph machine
Postage meter
Scale
Folding machine

[redacted] stated that the plates for the addressograph machine were prepared by him, which is an unusual practice for the business. He said that usually these plates are done in Orlando, Florida, but due to the time element he did them himself. He stated from memory that there were between 50 to 100 names, many of which were out of state. He continued, stating that the list was of interest to him as there were many unusual names among the list and he had a suspicion that this group of names included noted gamblers.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGA[illegible]

1.

FRANK ROSENTHAL was interviewed outside his residence at 2123 N. E. 122nd Street. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents, the fact that he did not have to make a statement. He was further advised that any statement could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney and the fact that no threats, promises or inducement would be made during this interview. He related the following:

ROSENTHAL stated that Multiple Sports News Service was one of four Services in the United States. The other three he described as Angel-Kaplan, Chicago, Illinois, and unknown Services in California and Texas.

He stated that the distribution of sheets used by Multiple Sports News Service varies from week to week. He stated that he is continually working on the format of the sheet put out by the Service and hopes to promote a country wide product. He further stated that the money in running a service is made through the distribution of sheets and not through the dissemination of "line" information.

He stated that locally the Service sells sheets at two commercial establishments. He indicated these were Alfie's on Miami Beach and 79th Street News Stand, Miami.

ROSENTHAL stated that he understood SOL GERSHENHORN had died in the past few weeks. He indicated that he heard a 19 count indictment was pending against GERSHENHORN at his death. He asked about the legality of sending line sheets in interstate commerce. ROSENTHAL was advised to seek the advice of his lawyer on this matter.

ROSENTHAL indicated that he had had his share of winners in the last three weeks on football and basketball games, but was still complaining about his lack of money.

Investigation by the Cincinnati Division reveals AIDES to be a white male, born September 17, 1910. He married the former RUTH FRIEDMAN in May, 1956; and they reside at 96 Cronwell Place, Dayton, telephone 278-2762.

Ohio

Referral/Consult

A check of the toll calls for 278-2762 for the months of October, November, and December, 1964, failed to reveal any calls to the Miami, Florida, area. A like chec of 223-7654 (Knock and Bid Club) was also negative [redacted]

KAUFMAN said he is unemployed; his wife is a school teacher. He said he derives income from a family partnership which has one or two pieces of rental property, from interest on loans, and interest from Teachers' Credit Union Deposits. He said he buys and sells whatever he thinks he can make a profit on.

He claimed he had no first-hand knowledge that [redacted] was a gambler.

b7C

[redacted] Retail Merchants Credit Association, Dallas, on August 20, 1958, advised KAUFMAN has been in file since September, 1951. He was formerly from Cleveland, Ohio. When interviewed regarding credit information, he refused to give any information regarding net worth or income. Credit record is satisfactory. A local bank reported a sizeable checking account. He stated he was self-employed as a salesman.

On [redacted] [redacted] Dallas Police Department, advised MORTON KAUFMAN was arrested on November 18, 1948, for bookmaking and was fined $50 in Corporation Court. His Dallas Police Department No. is 27756. The FBI return reflected no FBI record for KAUFMAN. KAUFMAN was again arrested by the Dallas Police Department on October 3, 1949, for investigation of gambling and was released.

According to Police Department records, KAUFMAN in 1948 was described as follows:

WMA, born 10/26/14, Cleveland, Ohio, 5'7", 143 lbs., brown hair, blue eyes.

Records of the Dallas Sheriff's Office were checked on April 27, 1962, but no information identifiable with KAUFMAN could be located.

Lt. [redacted] Dallas Police Department, advised on May 15, 1962, that MORTON KAUFMAN has been known to detectives of the Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department, for several years; however, he has only been arrested on two occasions, the last time for investigation in 1949. He said KAUFMAN is a small-time gambler and has never been very successful in gambling activities. He stated investigations by the Police Department regarding KAUFMAN indicate he "hangs out" at the Tenison Golf Course, where other local gamblers congregate to bet on sporting events and golf matches.

SUBJECT: MULTIPLE SPORTS NEWS SERVICE
INTERSTATE TRANSMISSION OF WAGERING INFORMATION

Miami is requesting authority to install a legal microphone outside a public telephone booth to cover gambling activities of Sam Green, an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, a Miami organization that provides sports information, including handicapping for professional baseball, basketball, football, hockey and college basketball and football. Other employees of Multiple Sports include Frank "Lefty" Rosenthal, well-known handicapper and sports consultant, and Alvin Weisberg. Rosenthal is alleged to formulate and distribute the national "line" in sports gambling.

The Miami Office advises that Green, who is president of the service on paper, but who is actually a front man for Rosenthal, has been using a particular pay telephone booth for placing long distance calls, purportedly to Norfolk, Virginia, and New York City.

The departmental attorney in Miami and the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section of the Criminal Division advised the Miami Office and the Bureau telephonically on April 20 and 21, 1965, that this coverage is desired by the Department in order to obtain legally admissible evidence of this interstate gambling operation.

ACTION:

There are attached a letter to the Attorney General for approval outlining the Department's request for this installation and a radiogram authorizing Miami to proceed with the installation.

ReLAlet 4/2/65.

Los Angeles is referred to Bulet to Miami dated 4/7/65 captioned "Multiple Sports News Service, ITWI," which authorized Miami to discreetly arrange to subscribe to "Baseball News" and Los Angeles to discreetly arrange to subscribe to a similar publication put out by J.K. Sports Journal, Los Angeles. These publications will be examined by the FBI Laboratory in an effort to determine any relation and cooperation between the two sports services. If investigations determine such a relationship exists, the Bureau will then consider subscriptions prepared by other sports services for analysis and examination.

1 - Richmond (168-104)

NOTE: In connection with investigation of subject, Los Angeles has recommended field offices subscribe to publications of various sports services. LA noted that in submitting subscription application to Multiple Sports News Service, schedules were received from J.K. Sports Journal, indicating a working relationship between the 2 sports services. As indicated above, Bureau has arranged for MM & LA to subscribe to 2 publications, which, after field analysis, will be submitted to the Lab for examination.

On basis of reairtels, prosecutive potential of Sam Green and John "The Greek" Prokos appears excellent.

In view of the physical condition of Joseph Amdursky, desirability of his prosecution may be questionable although he apparently has been operating in violation of the ITWI Statute.

Miami should furnish to Departmental Attorney or USA, Miami, if not already done so, facts concerning Amdursky's physical condition to have him determine if prosecution or grant of immunity under the FCC Immunity Statute is desirable.

Miami should also furnish to Philadelphia all pertinent information and have that office thoroughly interview Alvin Weisberg immediately for information concerning operation of Multiple Sports News Service.

The Bureau feels that it is premature at this time to consider the granting of immunity to Sam Green under the FCC Immunity Statute, although this possibility should be kept in mind. Additional investigation should be of assistance in making a final conclusion concerning the granting of such immunity.

This matter must receive immediate, preferred attention and sufficient personnel must be assigned to this investigation to insure its early successful conclusion.

NOTE: Multiple Sports News Service (MSNS) is a MM organization providing sports information, including handicapping for professional and college sports events. The organization is run by Frank "Lefty" Rosenthal, well-known handicapper and sports consultant. Sam Green is an employee of that organization and Alvin Weisberg was employed by MSNS until approximately two weeks ago, when he moved to PH, owing over $8,000 to bookmakers and shylocks and a considerable amount of money to Rosenthal and Green. John Prokos, a bookmaker in the MM area, apparently has been contacting Amdursky for the benefit of MSNS and obtaining bets from Amdursky. Amdursky, bookmaker in the NF area, is in extremely poor health as a result of two major operations; namely colostomy and removal of larynx due to cancer of the throat. He now speaks through an aperture in the breast bone.

Re Norfolk airtel to Bureau, captioned, [redacted] [redacted] Norfolk radiogram to Bureau 4/28/65; Miami airtel to Bureau, captioned, [redacted] and Miami telephone call to Norfolk 4/29/65.

Surveillance coverage on pertinent locations in Norfolk and Miami was discontinued 4/29/65. This was done in view of negative results at Miami and information obtained from MM 972-C* on 4/26/65 to the effect that JOHN PROKOS was making calls to Norfolk directly.

no [illegible] in Miami

Miami is in agreement with Norfolk that an immediate interview with JOE AMDURSKY would be of no value at this time. Miami feels that the "key" to this case and other related matters concerning Multiple Sports News Service (true ownership, list of customers and out of state contacts) is the penetration of ALVIN WEISBERG, former employee of captioned service. WEISBERG presently is in the Philadelphia area and his exact address is now being ascertained.

b7C

It further is the opinion of Miami that an interview of WEISBERG in Philadelphia, Pa., by SA [redacted] would bring about the desired results. It is felt that it would be unwise to subpoena WEISBERG for any contemplated grand jury proceedings in Miami as it is possible that outside influence would be exerted on him in this locale.

Miami requests Bureau permission to have SA [redacted] interview WEISBERG with reference to above mentioned matters. It is noted that this agent has handled all the investigation concerning Multiple Sports Service and has, in the past, interviewed WEISBERG on several occasions.

AT MIAMI, FLORIDA

1. Will conduct appropriate investigation to ascertain the type of operation being conducted by captioned service.

2. Will continue efforts to ascertain the relationship between Multiple Sports News Service, JOHN PROKOS and JOSEPH AMDURSKY.

3. Will, through appropriate sources, attempt to identify additional subscribers or individuals receiving the "line" and recipients of the "Baseball Journal."

4. Will obtain long distance calls for telephones utilized by captioned service and its employees.

- ADMINISTRATIVE -

The period of this report exceeds ninety days inasmuch as investigation from an auxiliary office was not received prior to the submission of last report.

Information copies of this report are designated for the Los Angeles Division in view of their interest in a similar operation captioned [redacted] aka."

On April 20, 1965, the Miami Division requested authority for the installation of a radio transmitter and microphone concealed appropriately and placed outside the air vents of a pay telephone booth. Departmental Attorney [redacted], Miami, Florida, approved of this installation on the same date. Location of this booth is 8110 Biscayne Boulevard, telephone number 751-9445.

b6

On April 21, 1965, the Bureau granted authority to install radio transmitter and microphone at above-mentioned place.

Referral/Consult

[redacted]

Mr. [redacted] stated that in order to fulfill the requirements of the ITWI Statute, it is imperative that the identities of the individuals receiving calls in Norfolk, Virginia, and Miami, Florida, be ascertained.

On April 26, 1965, MM 972-C* advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL and JOHN "THE GREEK" PROKOS were in telephonic contact. ROSENTHAL requested that PROKOS keep track of all calls that he made to Norfolk and advise him of the same.

The above conversation seems to account for the change in procedure of the transfer of information between AMDURSKY, PROKOS and GREEN. It appears that since AMDURSKY is a customer of Multiple Sports News Service, they will incur the expenses of PROKOS in making the calls to Norfolk. Since PROKOS is also a customer of the "service," he can in one call give to AMDURSKY the "line" and also take his layoff action.

[redacted]

On April 28, 1965, the Norfolk Division advised that the Special Intelligence Unit of the Norfolk Police Department was in the area of the residence of JOSEPH AMDURSKY. The local police department advised that their interest was based on an inquiry received from [redacted] [redacted], Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company,

b6
b7C

Richmond, Virginia, concerning the activities of JOSEPH AMDURSKY. This inquiry was based on information supplied from the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Miami, Florida, that an unusual quantity of slugs was obtained from a pay telephone booth in Miami. A check of long distance calls from this telephone booth disclosed a numerous amount of calls to the residence of JOSEPH AMDURSKY.

On this date, Norfolk advised that due to the location of JOSEPH AMDURSKY's residence, the possibility of establishing presence of only JOSEPH AMDURSKY in receiving telephone calls is unlikely. Investigation reflects that there are frequent visitors coming in and out of this residence during the day.

Surveillance coverage on pertinent locations in Norfolk and Miami was discontinued April 29, 1965. This was done in view of negative results at Miami and information obtained from MM 972-C* on April 26, 1965, to the effect that JOHN PROKOS was making calls to Norfolk directly.

Miami is in agreement with Norfolk that an immediate interview with JOE AMDURSKY would be of no value at this time. It was suggested that after full facts in this matter have been developed, AMDURSKY should be interviewed thoroughly concerning his activity with Multiple Sports News Service and JOHN PROKOS.

Investigation is now being conducted to ascertain how and when PROKOS is making long distance calls from Miami to Norfolk. MM 972-C* advised on April 29, 1965, that PROKOS had made 11 calls to Norfolk during the week.

The Bureau advised on May 3, 1965, that coverage of JOSEPH AMDURSKY should be discontinued.

On May 3, 1965, the Bureau indicated that in view of the physical condition of JOSEPH AMDURSKY, desirability of his prosecution may be questionable, although he apparently has been operating in violation of the ITWI Statute.

The Los Angeles Division indicated that upon observation of schedule sheets published by J. K. Sports Journal, Los Angeles, California, and Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, [redacted] season to Multiple Sports News Service. The operators of Multiple Sports News Service apparently then duplicated the sheets for distribution to their subscribers throughout the country.

b6

It is the desire of Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] Los Angeles, that all possible proof of such procedures be obtained as evidence in the anticipated prosecution of [redacted] The possibility exists that the operators of Multiple Sports News Service will be joined as defendants under the provisions of Sections 1952 and 1953, Title 18, U. S. Code.

The Los Angeles Division advised on April 2, 1965, that Green's Southern California Sports Service became defunct following the sudden death of the owner, SOL GERSHENHORN, aka, upon his indictment there under ITAR and ITWP last December. Assets of the service company were bought by other principals (notably [redacted], aka [redacted] new service under the trade style Mel Howard's Sports Publications, 10510 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles, 90047. With MELVIN M. HOWARD as the ostensible owner and operator, this outfit produced basketball schedule sheets for the last few weeks of the 1964-65 season, and now has a baseball schedule booklet in circulation to subscribers.

It appears that Mel Howard's Sports Publications has grandoise plans. Having at first used stationery of Green's Southern California Sports Service (GSCSS) with overlays showing the new name and address, they now have their own. Indicative of their plans was an ad in the Sunday Los Angeles "Times" of March 14, 1965, for the so-called "Monthly Baseball Scoreboard." The ad cost probably $1500 and included the statement, "Never again will it be necessary for you to buy a program." This is probably a schema to show that their appeal is to sports fans, and that incidental use of the booklets by illegal bookmakers is beyond their control.

However, the Los Angeles Division has information that there is available a phone service for securing the betting line and other information which is only useful to gamblers, and is designed and intended for facilitating bookmaking. There is no reason to believe that this new outfit has any more legitimate purpose than its predecessor and the other sports service outfits operating around the country.

A police source reported on March 17, 1965, that a local printer was approached by MEL HOWARD to print 10,000 baseball schedules (called Baseball Scoreboard, as was GSCSS' baseball publication in years past) per month with 72 pages. If true (the first issue has hardly more than 20 pages), the Baseball Scoreboard would necessarily contain much more than just schedule information for the simple reason that there are not enough major baseball games in a month to fill more than about 20 pages.

This fact brings up a point which Richmond might consider in contemplation of prosecuting [redacted] Baseball schedules, unlike football and basketball schedules, list just a very few games per day. Because those games are all played by the Major Leagues and the teams all travel country-wide, almost any newspaper contains enough schedule information to satisfy the needs of bookmakers. It follows, then, that bookmakers, and/or service operators, as defendants under ITAR and ITWP, could argue with merit that the baseball booklets are not essential to their operations. They do, of course, utilize the booklets because such are convenient and are handed out as part of full-service subscription, which includes price-line information, starting pitchers, etc. But they could live without the booklets, and still take action on games across the country by use of newspapers. Conversely, if denied the use of football and basketball schedule sheets, their action would be largely confined to local games, thus curtailing measurably the interstate traffic.

Therefore, there is reason to think it would not be circumspect to attempt prosecution of sports service operators under ITAR and ITWP on the basis of their distribution of baseball schedule booklets; that it is better strategy to use this baseball season to build up knowledge about the operators and their operations, and then to strike with prosecution during the forthcoming football season, melding our knowledge and techniques with the efforts of local authorities, such as were proved out in the GERSHENHORN case. In that regard, it is believed essential to successful prosecution that the U. S. Attorney have available an abundance of evidence to show that when sports bookmakers are arrested, they invariably are found using schedule sheets for recordations of such data as lines, scores and totals of bets and that the sheets are essential to their illegal operations.

This month, for example, Los Angeles used a made-up name and a post office box at Palm Springs, California, when writing Multiple to subscribe to baseball schedules for the season. This is a different name and post office box, in another city than was used for subscribing to all the other services known throughout the nation. Multiple did not even acknowledge, but within a few days, schedules were received from J. K. Sports Journal, addressed to the name and post office box in Palm Springs, which had been used exclusively in the contact with Multiple. If this applies in the other direction, it is reasonably possible that [redacted] is serviced by Multiple.

Other interesting knowledge from these subscriptions is that the two separate sports services in Chicago publish schedule booklets which are identical in virtually every respect and that J. K. Sports Journal in Los Angeles and Multiple Sports News Service in Miami share their format, except one shows starting times in Pacific Time and the other in Eastern Time.

b7C

The Los Angeles Division further advised that Los Angeles telephone number [redacted] is listed to [redacted] [redacted] who has long been known here as a bookmaker and who is currently employed in Mel Howard's Sports Publications, 10510 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles. When interviewed by Special Agents in reference to the sports service now known as Mel Howard's, [redacted] described his job as that [redacted] [redacted]. He made many self-serving declarations in defense of himself and the sports service with which he is connected but did admit that Mel Howard's, in addition to issuing a monthly baseball schedule, puts out full sports service for a subscription fee of $25 per week. The service includes warmups, scores and lines. Mel Howard's is the successor to the late SOL GERSHENHORN's so-called "Green's Southern California Sports Service" with which the Miami Office has been made familiar. HOWARD's outfit is operating in competition t[redacted] J. K. Sports Journal.

On April 7, 1965, the Bureau requested that the Miami Division discreetly arrange to subscribe to a publication published by Multiple Sports News Service captioned "BASEBALL NEWS."

To comply with this request, the Miami Division has [redacted] Miami, Florida, under the name of [redacted].

On April 16, 1965, the Miami Division sent to the FBI Laboratory the March and April issues of "Monthly Baseball Journal," published by Multiple Sports News Service. On April 29, 1965, the May publication was submitted to the Laboratory.

The Washington Field Office advised as follows:

[redacted] made available telephone information to SA WILLIAM D. CAMPBELL.

Nathan T Miller

The following information concerns NATHAN ~~M.~~ T MILLER:

Nathan T Miller

Personal Background

New York MILLER is a white male, born March 9, 1910, New York City, and presently resides at 4923 LaSalle Road, Avondale, Maryland, with his wife, FRANCES JEANETTE MILLER.

In the past, it has been reported MILLER has been employed as a car salesman in the Washington, D. C. area.

Telephones at Residence

The 1964-65 Washington area telephone directory lists NATHAN MILLER, 4923 LaSalle Road, Avondale, Maryland, with telephone listing WA 7-5061 (same as 927-5061).

In August, 1961, records of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, Hyattsville, Maryland, disclosed the above number was installed in 1947 and MILLER then had one line, including one portable and three jacks.

As of December, 1963, unpublished telephone number [redacted] was listed to [redacted]

Credit Check

A recent check of records of the Credit Bureau, Inc., Washington, D. C., disclosed MILLER has resided at 4923 LaSalle Road, Avondale, Maryland, since about 1949. The records indicated his employment was unknown.

Arrest Check

NATHAN MILLER, born March 9, 1910, New York City, has Metropolitan Police Department Number 49817.

During the period 1929 to 1940, he was "picked up" numerous times for investigation and twice for disorderly. In 1929 he was arrested for illegal possession of liquor, which was nol prossed. According to the records, he has never received a jail sentence. The police record does not show any arrest for gambling.

NATHAN MILLER has FBI No. 4259659 which has one entry in 1934 - a print from Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C.

Activities

Informants have described MILLER as a bookmaker who accepts horse bets and sporting event bets, but not numbers bets.

[redacted] a businessman in Washington, advised Bureau Agents April 20, 1964, that NATHAN MILLER, on [redacted] said he (MILLER) gave [redacted] and [redacted] and he could place bets with MILLER or his brother, "LEW."

b6
b7C

The above-mentioned numbers are at the residence of [redacted] Maryland, a suburb of Washington, D. C.

In May, 1964, LOUIS MILLER was interviewed by Washington Field Office Agents in connection with another gambling matter. He said NATHAN MILLER is his brother but they do not get along and he does not do any work for NATHAN.

NATHAN MILLER has been a friend of JOE NESLINE for many years and in August, 1964, after the death of Mrs. NESLINE, JOE took Mr. and Mrs. MILLER for a pleasure trip to Las Vegas out of appreciation and they stayed at the Sands Hotel. Mrs. MILLER had been in constant attendance with Mrs. NESLINE during her illness, according to informant.

According to [redacted] [redacted] Maryland, a suburb of Washington, D. C., MILLER works as a car buyer in wholesale used cars. [redacted] claimed MILLER works five to six hours a day. Fisurs on MILLER give the impression he is not gainfully employed and he goes to the local race tracks frequently.

Check of toll calls on his residence in the past indicates he has been in contact with persons in Maryland and Virginia who have a gambling reputation.

The exact "tie" between MILLER and ROSENTHAL is not definitely known. Miami was requested to furnish Washington Field Office any additional information concerning MILLER which comes to their attention in the future.

Chicago indices are negative regarding [redacted]

On March 12, 1965, Postal Inspector's Aide [redacted] (protect), Dayton, Ohio, advised SA WILLIAM R. STRINGER that [redacted] receives the "Ohio State Sports News," Box 47, Canton, Ohio, at the Moraine Hotel, Dayton, Ohio.

A review of Cleveland Office indices reflects that JOE GERACI, 3822 Hillbrook Road, is identical to JOSEPH C. GERACI, aka JOSEPH CHARLES GERACI, resident of 3825 Hillbrook Road, University Heights, Ohio.

Information relative to University Heights, Ohio telephone number [redacted] was obtained by IC [redacted] on April 30, 1965, from [redacted].

On March 29, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service), instructed STAN to contact ALVIN WEISBERG (Multiple Sports News Service) and tell him that he had until 9:00 P.M. that night go get the money. ROSENTHAL said that there is a good possibility that WEISBERG would end up in the hospital due to his thievery. ROSENTHAL asked GREEN how much does WEISBERG owe you. The sum of $2,000 was mentioned. ROSENTHAL said he owes me $550. He said the SOB is no good. ROSENTHAL asked GREEN if he knew that he had taken $1,000 from Account #7.

ROSENTHAL further instructed GREEN to give ELLIOT PRICE $1,090 and collect from him $225 for the schedules.

On March 30, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with JOHN "THE GREEK" PROKOS, asked PROKOS for [redacted] telephone number. The number of [redacted] was repeated by ROSENTHAL.

ROSENTHAL also asked PROKOS how many baseball schedule books he would want. The figure of fifty was repeated by ROSENTHAL.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). He asked what is the Governor's number. Telephone number [redacted] was repeated.

On April 2, 1965, MM 972-C* provided information that [redacted] is a new customer of captioned service and will be receiving five baseball books per month.

On April 2, 1965, MM 972-C* and [redacted] in telephonic conversation. Apparently somebody has been putting out the "line" in Los Angeles at 12:15 P.M. ROSENTHAL indicated in this conversation he felt that somebody was getting the "line" from Angel-Kaplan as their "line" comes out at noon. ROSENTHAL told him not to worry because when the season starts, they will put their "line" out earlier than Kaplan. ROSENTHAL also indicated that [redacted] had a customer for him located [redacted] was supposed to supply him with the exact address.

On April 3, 1965, MM 972-C* advised that ROSENTHAL was once again in contact telephonically with [redacted] ROSENTHAL advised [redacted] any Grand Jury. ROSENTHAL also inquired as to how big the other fellow's booklet is. [redacted]" ROSENTHAL indicated to [redacted] that he had all New York "lined up."

On April 7, 1965, MM 972-C* reflected that an unknown party advised ROSENTHAL that the books from the Coast had arrived for next month.

On April 6, 1965, [redacted] advised that Sports Incorporated, Norfolk, Virginia, is owned and operated solely by JOSEPH AMDURSKY. He stated that AMDURSKY does not employ anyone. He stated that AMDURSKY, trading as Sports Incorporated, gets the monthly Baseball Journal from Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, telephone PLaza 4-0637.

b6

He stated that Multiple Sports News Service sells a service such as the monthly schedule of sports events. He stated that AMDURSKY obtains the monthly Baseball Journal, which sells on newsstands for 75¢ each; however, AMDURSKY gets [redacted] informant stated that Multiple Sports News Service are not bookmakers, to his knowledge, and to his knowledge, do not take bets. He stated there would be no reason for AMDURSKY to call Multiple Sports News Service for any betting information. He stated that he has heard of JOHN "THE GREEK" PROKOS as a bookmaker, but has never met him or had any dealings with him. He stated that no one has ever called him [redacted] and he knows of no gambler in Norfolk by the name of [redacted]

On April 7, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. This entailed general conversation and he repeated the fact that the baseball books from the coast had arrived today.

ROSENTHAL was also advised by Multiple Sports that NATTIE MILLER wanted five baseball books and they were to be delivered to City News, Washington, D. C.

ROSENTHAL and ELLIOTT PRICE were engaged in a lengthy conversation. The substance of this conversation was that at the present time, PRICE is in a "combine" involving the "head," JERRY (probably JERRY ZAROWITZ) and himself. PRICE told ROSENTHAL that JERRY did not pass on the contract of $200 a week for MUTT (MORTON KAUFMAN, the present handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service). ROSENTHAL could not understand this and told PRICE that the "service" could not bear this $200 a week. ROSENTHAL indicated to PRICE that if the contract was not approved, he was certain that MUTT would go to [redacted] (probably [redacted]. ROSENTHAL said that if JERRY finds this out, he would probably pay $500 to stop it.

ROSENTHAL and PRICE continued their conversation, talking about a "combine" that existed in 1963. ROSENTHAL indicated that in this combine, NESLINE controlled 40% of the total interest and PRICE, JERRY and others controlled the other 60%. ROSENTHAL said that he owned 25% of NESLINE's interest. ROSENTHAL complained that when he left this "office" he was minus and forced to borrow money from NESLINE in order to pay for his attorney fees, bond and fine in North Carolina.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with MORTON KANE, bookmaker and associate of GIL BECKLEY. In answer to an inquiry made by KANE, ROSENTHAL reflected that [redacted] with the over-under runs "line." ROSENTHAL said that there is no set time when [redacted]

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with an employee at Multiple Sports News Service. He instructed SAM GREEN to call "THE GREEK" (JOHN PROKOS), [redacted] [redacted] and KENNY (KEN HANNA) with the pitching changes.

ROSENTHAL was again in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports NewsService. He inquired as to why NATTIE MILLER had called and what he wanted. He was heard to repeat, "He is laying low for what -- the Grand Jury?" ROSENTHAL requested that they send out MILLER's books right away.

On April 29, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. He inquired as to how many calls #3 (JOHN PROKOS) had made to Norfolk. He was heard to repeat the number 11.

On May 2, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with "MUTT" (MORTON KAUFMAN, handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service). ROSENTHAL made inquiry as to the current prices on the baseball games for this date.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with MARTY (MORTON KANE). Evidently KANE made inquiry as to the point spread in the Dodger baseball game and ROSENTHAL related that that was a good price.

On May 3, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] ROSENTHAL stated that he had just received a subpoena for a trial in Los Angeles. [redacted] that he had also just received a subpoena. ROSENTHAL said that he would see [redacted]t the Seagull Solarium in a short while.

On May 4, 1965, ROSENTHAL and GIL BECKLEY engaged in a lengthy conversation. BECKLEY inquired as to when ROSENTHAL was going to the coast and told him. ROSENTHAL, "to contact [redacted] thought that you might get into some kind of trouble with that."

BECKLEY said that [redacted] had read the whole thing on that guy (KATZ) you're going out there about and your (ROSENTHAL) name was not mentioned.

BECKLEY continued, stating, "I think they are calling you out there to see if he (KATZ) ever calls you."

ROSENTHAL stated, "They will get an answer, the answer is No. I don't know the (obscene) and I am not concerned over it, you know, just curious."

ROSENTHAL related to BECKLEY that [redacted] I talked to out west told me this is a test case for the government. They want to find out whether or not they can make a case with a player wagering out of state. Naturally, they will have to produce the person that he wagered with. That's why the kid [redacted] down here got subpoenaed."

ROSENTHAL said, "This is a U. S. Government test case - the first of its kind. It sounds sensible because he (KATZ) was indicted for wagering across the state line." BECKLEY reflected, "They are going to say to him (KATZ) that they were standing outside the booth and heard him (KATZ) make the call and make the bet - you know, that is a bunch of (obscene)."

ROSENTHAL stated, "GIL, I also heard that the kid (KATZ) that got pinched out there -- there was a spiked mike put into the phone and the judge said that even though it is illegal, he, at this time, does not care to rule against it. You didn't know that, did you?"

BECKLEY replied, "No."

ROSENTHAL replied, "No, they haven't been indicted yet, but they might try to indict them out there once they get them [redacted] out there. Yeah, this KATZ or whatever the (obscene) name is. He calls the kid [redacted] out west for service, so I asked this kid to talk to KATZ and ask him if he might have any idea why I got a subpoena.

A review of Cleveland Office indices reflects that JOE GERACI, 3822 Hillbrook Road, is identical to JOSEPH C. GERACI, aka JOSEPH CHARLES GERACI, resident of 3825 Hillbrook Road, University Heights, Ohio.

On May 11, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with GIL BECKLEY. ROSENTHAL stated to BECKLEY that he had never put out a false "line" as long as he has been operating Multiple Sports News Service. He said it was ridiculous to put out a "line" so that he could bet on this false information. He indicated that only one individual on this particular date would be acquainted with the bets he had made on baseball games. He indicated that [redacted] and he would call him in order to clarify this matter. BECKLEY appeared to be sympathetic with ROSENTHAL in this matter.

and ROSENTHAL told BECKLEY that this was very common among the gambling element in Miami. He told BECKLEY that such a rumor could wreck his business.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with attorney [redacted] ROSENTHAL inquired as to his Constitutional rights ina federal trial in court. He told [redacted] that he had been subpoenaed to a trial, CHARLES KATZ vs. the United States, to commence on May 17, 1965, in Los Angeles. ROSENTHAL was heard to mention that he would take the Fifth Amendment on any questions that did not directly concern his personal history. He further indicated that any questions concerning his business, associates or former activities would not be answered and he would invoke the Fifth Amendment.

ROSENTHAL also stated to [redacted] that he had a friend by the name of [redacted] who had received a letter from Internal Revenue Service concerning the fact that [redacted] had not filed any income tax returns in the last three years. Multiple Sports News Service is located in Room 112, Morton Building, 1090 Northeast 79th Street.

Multiple Sports News Service is currently furnishing "line" information and other information, such as up-to-date scores on Major League baseball games.

Since the start of the 1965 Major League baseball season, the "service" has given out the "line" at 10:00 A.M. and thereafter will continue to give out changes on the lineup until the first afternoon baseball game. If there are no afternoon games, the service commences at 5:00 P.M. with the "line" on the evening Major League baseball games. Multiple Sports News Service stays open until the last game has been completed on a daily basis.

It is noted through daily observations at the "service" that SAM GREEN arrives daily at 9:30 A.M. and will remain at the "service" until 11:30 or 12:00 P.M.

Since April 15, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL has been working at the "service" from noon until 6:00 P.M. b6 b7C

During the evening hours, SAM GREEN and [redacted] [redacted] have been working on a regular basis.

On April 1, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL, ANTHONY RICCI and CHRIS PROKOS were observed in a conference at the Morton Building, 1090 Northeast 79th Street.

At 3:40 P.M. on this date, ROSENTHAL departed in a late model Cadillac bearing 1965 Florida license 10WW 4275. A check of appropriate records at the Broward County Sheriff's Office reflected this license registered to ANTHONY RICCI, 1332 Van Buren, Hollywood, Florida.

At the same time ROSENTHAL and RICCI departed, CHRIS PROKOS left in a dark blue 1965 Chevrolet bearing 1965 Florida license 1E 786.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date May 5, 1965

FRANK ROSENTHAL, who resides at 2123 N. E. 122nd Street, was interviewed in a chance meeting outside his residence.

ROSENTHAL stated that he was now working at Multiple Sports News Service during the afternoon hours. This was necessitated by the fact that ALVIN WEISBERG, a former employee of the service, took off several weeks ago. ROSENTHAL stated WEISBERG owed a lot of money to local individuals, including SAM GREEN. He further reflected that he felt WEISBERG would no doubt bury his soul to the FBI as an informant.

Along the lines of informant, ROSENTHAL mentioned the name of [redacted] He said it was common knowledge that [redacted] was an informant for Internal Revenue Service, although he would work for either side in order to get money. He said [redacted] tried to get close to him by obtaining service at Multiple Sports News Service. He also spent time at the service office space. ROSENTHAL said that [redacted] had gotten some people in a bind, but most people in this area are aware of his tactics. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL commented that Multiple Sports is sending Baseball Journals across state lines, although he denied any individual outside of the State of Florida was receiving "line" information on a daily basis.

RESULTS OF LABORATORY EXAMINATIONS AS FURNISHED BY FBI LABORATORY

b6
b7C

On April 5, 1965, the FBI Laboratory advised the Los Angeles Division, under the caption of [redacted] aka," as follows:

Qc37 Photocopy of Schedule Sheet for college and professional basketball for the week ending 1/17/65 published by Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, Vol. 3, No. 7

K41 Schedule Sheet for college and professional basketball for the week ending 1/17/65 published by J. K. Sports Journal, Los Angeles, California, Vol. 3, No. 7

Result of examination:

It was found that the original of Qc37 and K41 are lithographic reproductions, and that the original of Qc37 is a lithographic reproduction of a duplicate copy of K41. This applies only to the actual listing of the teams and not to the headings and other miscellaneous printing. This conclusion is based on the arrangement, the spacing, the size and style of type, and defects in the original type faces.

On April 6, 1965, the FBI Laboratory advised as follows:

Q3 "Baseball News" dated Thursday, March 11, through Sunday, April 11

Result of examination:

Q3 was compared with the National Lottery File without identifying the printing on this specimen with the printing on any specimens in file. A photocopy is being added to this file for future reference.

AT TULSA, OKLAHOMA

The Criterion Bridge Company is apparently the former Criterion Billiard Parlor formerly located at 910 South Main Street, a gambling establishment. The Criterion was operated principally by ARNOLD COX, a Tulsa gambler, until his death in June, 1964. COX's partner is CLARINDA FAYE WAGONER, a Tulsa resident, who, after COX's death, bought out COX's share of the business. The business is now located at 920 South Boston Avenue and is known as the Boston Recreation. It is operated by CLARINDA FAYE WAGONER and ROY FARLEY, an old-time Tulsa gambler, who apparently now has an equal share in the business. They employ [redacted] All types of sports are bet at the Boston Recreation. It is a source of some speculation as to where ROY FARLEY obtained the money to get into the Boston Recreation.

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

The Los Angeles Central Directory of the Pacific Telephone Company lists 625-2345 (MAdison 5-2345) to the PBX of the Los Angeles Times newspaper, a daily, with circulation in excess of a million.

Cursory examination and comparison of Multiple's publication with baseball schedule booklets published by Mel Howard's Sports Publications and J. K. Sports Journal, the only two services in the Pacific Time Zone known to produce such booklets, has been accomplished. From this, it appears quite evident that Multiple is using J. K.'s booklet as source. However, the Multiple booklet is not a photographic copy of the J. K. booklet, as can be observed by visual comparison of the "Monthly Baseball Journal" with Multiple's "Baseball News." It would seem that the "Baseball Journal" was edited and modified to suit the purpose of Multiple before being turned over to the Miami printer for production of the "Baseball News" booklet.

The Los Angeles Office possesses baseball schedule booklets from each of the service outfits producing such issues in the nation. The lineup of teams and general configuration of each booklet, when compared with all the others, shows clearly that the Multiple publication is unlike all but the J. K. publication.

b7C

Another indication of the close relations between J. K. and Multiple was found when, using a made-up name and a post office box at Palm Springs, California, a letter requesting subscription rates for the baseball season was sent to Multiple, exclusively. The response was made by J. K. Sports Journal and no acknowledgement was made by Multiple. This should have legal significance, if the need arises.

A review of Detroit City Directories has revealed that Beaufit Street is nonexistent. It was ascertained that a 1095 Beaufait Street, Detroit, is the location for Briggs Upholstering Company, telephone LO 8-0066.

This location is known to be the hangout for all of the leading Syrian gamblers in the area. The alleged "top" Syrian gambler is JAMES TAMER, also known as "AIKEL," FBI Number 312 773. He is known to be active currently in betting.

George

TAMER was born June 12, 1912, at Pottsville, Pennsylvania, has an eighth grade education, and resides at 20435 Vernier, Harper Woods, Michigan. He is associated with [redacted] and [redacted] at Briggs Upholstering Company.

TAMER has an extensive arrest record dating to the 1930's for bank robbery. On September 10, 1959, TAMER was convicted in U. S. District Court, Terre Haute, Indiana, on charges of conspiracy and attempt to evade excise tax. He was sentenced to five years and a $25,000 fine. TAMER was paroled from United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia, on September 3, 1964, to Detroit. His full term expires November 26, 1966.

AT PORTLAND, OREGON

Portland telephone number 226-2121 is immediately recognizable as the telephone number for the main switchboard of the Portland "Oregonian," daily newspaper.

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Dorothy A Korshak

[redacted] Illinois Bell Telephone Company, [redacted], Chicago, Illinois, advised SA JERRY H. BREIDENFELD on April 5, 1965, that DOROTHY ALBERTINA KORSHAK, nee Anderson, 1100 North Dearborn, Apartment 1412, Chicago, Illinois, was employed by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, Commercial Department.

KORSHAK, nee ANDERSON, entered on duty with the telephone company November 28, 1956. The file indicates her date of birth as September 23, 1924, at Chicago, Ill, father CARL ANDERSON, mother MARTHA JOHNSON. KORSHAK was employed by Grossman Brothers, 92nd and Commercial, as a sales clerk November, 1945, to April, 1946. She was employed as a hairdresser at Rudolph Kamp Beauty Salon, 1640 East 55th Street, and Leonard's Beauty Salon, 1640 East 55th Street, Chicago, from July, 1946, to November, 1956. No derogatory information was contained in the file, which reflects KORSHAK's Social Security Number as 342-18-9598.

Credit and criminal record checks by IC [redacted] [redacted] on April 5, 1965, at the Chicago Credit Bureau and Bureau of Records and Communications of the Chicago Police Department failed to indicate any derogatory information concerning DOROTHY ALBERTINA ANDERSON or KORSHAK.

In connection with another investigation, Mr. [redacted], Protective Division, Cleveland Retail Credit Men's Company, was contacted by IC [redacted] [redacted] on February 17, 1964, at which time he furnished the following background information regarding JOSEPH C. GERACI:

The above agency has maintained a file on JOSEPH CHARLES GERACI, wife MARY BELL BECKER GERACI, since 1934, which reflects that these individuals have resided at 3825 Hillbrook Road, University Heights, for many years. This file disclosed that JOSEPH CHARLES GERACI was born on November 22, 1911, at Cleveland, Ohio, and has been connected with his brothers, SAM and ANTHONY, the Cleveland Celery Market, 2633 East 40th Street, for the past thirty-five or forty years. [redacted] stated that JOSEPH GERACI reportedly received an income of $63,000 from this business in 1961, plus a rental income of approximately $800 per month from real estate holdings.

Detective [redacted] Police Department, advised IC [redacted] on October 28, 1964, that his department had no arrest record for JOSEPH CHARLES GERACI but that GERACI is suspected of being a "bookie" and that his department has made numerous spot checks on his residence in an effort to bring charges against him. [redacted] advised that he had learned through informants that GERACI was very active in betting circles and developed information that indicates GERACI is widely known as a "notorious better." [redacted] further advised that he learned from a reliable source that GERACI visited various gambling spots in Florida during the winter of 1963. Detective [redacted] stated old associates of GERACI have advised that he was arrested several times for gambling activities many years ago by the Cleveland Police Department but that his arrest record mysteriously disappeared from Cleveland Police Department files. [redacted] said he subsequently verified that GERACI has no arrest record with the Cleveland Police Department.

A review of appropriate telephone directories on April 23, 1965, disclosed that MARY BECKER's telephone number 321-7203 is listed at 3825 Hillbrook Road, University Heights, Ohio, and that JOSEPH C. GERACI, telephone number 321-1454, is also listed as residing at 3825 Hillbrook Road, University Heights, Ohio.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

RE: MULTIPLE SPORTS NEWS SERVICE
INTERSTATE TRANSMISSION
OF WAGERING INFORMATION

Investigation conducted by this Bureau reveals that Sam Green, an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, has been using a particular public pay telephone booth for placing long distance calls in connection with Multiple Sports News Service operation. That organization provides sports information, including handicapping for professional baseball, basketball, football, hockey and college basketball and football. The telephone booth used by Sam Green is located at 8110 Biscayne Boulevard, Miami, Florida.

The departmental attorney at Miami and the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section of the Criminal Division advised our Miami Office and the Bureau telephonically on April 20 and 21, 1965, that legal microphone coverage is desired by the Department in order to obtain legally admissible evidence of this interstate gambling operation. This coverage will be instituted unless advised to the contrary by you.

ReNFlet 6/28/65 captioned [redacted] indicating Miami requested Norfolk to recommend whether Joseph Amdursky should be granted immunity in the case involving Sam Green or if he should be considered as a subject in connection with the case involving Multiple Sports News Service.

Miami should immediately advise Bureau and Norfolk results of contact with departmental attorney or USA, Miami, concerning Amdursky's physical condition. If such information has not been furnished to departmental attorney or USA Miami should furnish same immediately and advise of results. As stated in Bureau airtel 5/3/65, USA or departmental attorney should be made aware of Amdursky's physical condition so that a determination can be made if prosecution or grant of immunity under the FCC Immunity Statute is desirable.

[redacted]

As previously pointed out to Miami, the desirability of prosecuting Amdursky may be questionable due to his physical condition, although he apparently has been operating in violation of the ITWI Statute.

NOTE: In connection with investigation of MSNS, prosecution of Sam Green and John "The GreeK" Prokos is being considered. One of their contacts is Joseph Amdursky, who is in extremely poor health resulting from a colostomy operation and removal of his larynx due to cancer of the throat. The latter operation necessitates him speaking through an aperture in the breastbone. Amdursky's physical condition should be brought to the attention of the USA or departmental attorney so that a decision can be made concerning Amdursky.

On May 21, 1965, Bureau was advised that the Mutt transmitter and microphone have not been utilized in the investigation of Multiple Sports News Service due to a change in the pattern followed by the employees of same.

On May 25, 1965, Miami Division, in communication with the Philadelphia Division, set forth a series of questions to be covered in an anticipated interview with ALVIN WEISBERG, a former employee of Multiple Sports News Service:

1. His capacity with captioned service.

2. Verification of calls made by him from Miami to Norfolk, Virginia, on the days indicated. This would include identification of JOSEPH AMDURSKY and also the content of telephone calls between Miami and Norfolk as transfer of "line" information and taking bets from AMDURSKY.

3. Identify the account number of JOSEPH AMDURSKY.

4. An admission that he placed bets given to him by AMDURSKY to local bookmaker, JOHN PROKOS.

5. Account number of JOHN PROKOS.

6. Verification that STANLEY GREEN, as of March 31, 1965, continued this same pattern from Miami to Norfolk, Virginia.

The following items should also be brought to the attention of [redacted] if it is felt that [redacted]

1. The main money man behind captioned service. Information received to date reflects that this individual is probably MIKE COPPOLA, JOE NESLINE or CHARLES TOURINE.

2. The names of out of state customers receiving "line" information from the service.

INFORMANTS

On May 4, 1965, [redacted] advised that it was [redacted] existing in this [redacted] from "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL from the Miami, Florida, area. ROSENTHAL also publishes his own schedules and is known to be servicing gamblers and bookmakers on the east coast for $50 to $100 a week for his service in "line" information.

On May 26, 1965, Tampa Division advised that [redacted] has advised that MICHAEL TOOLEY is currently obtaining the "line" on sporting events through Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, and pays $30 a month for this service.

On [redacted] FRANK ROSENTHAL is presently in Chicago, Illinois, and is supposed to stay there for approximately ten days. Source did not know the nature of this trip.

On June 11, 1965, [redacted] advised that he [redacted]

b6

On May 13, 1965, MM 972-C* advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL had recently been in telephonic conversation with JOHN PROKOS. It was indicated from this conversation that [redacted] had accused ROSENTHAL of putting out a false "line" in order to further his own betting activities. ROSENTHAL indicated that this was a smear campaign by [redacted] and the charges were completely unfounded.

On May 14, 1965, MM 972-C* advised that STANLEY GREEN (employee of Multiple Sports News Service) and FRANK ROSENTHAL had engaged in a lengthy conversation on this date.

Source advised that GREEN reflected that he has been getting the starting pitchers of the baseball games from [redacted] P.M. daily. He said that he then forwards this information to "Mutt" (MORTON KAUFMAN). He said with this arrangement the next day's "line" is ready at 7:00 P.M. He stated that #4 (ELLIOTT PRICE's office, Boston, Massachusetts) has been helpful in furnishing information from the Boston, Chicago, New York and Baltimore newspapers. GREEN said that #4 has been calling in around 8:45 to 9:00 A.M. daily for the latest "line".

On May 16, 1965, MM 972-C* advised he understood ROSENTHAL had on this date been in telephonic conversation with ELLIOTT PRICE in Boston and he had informed PRICE that he was going to Los Angeles on May 18, 1965, and would be a hostile witness.

On May 20, 1965, MM 972-C* advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL had been in telephonic conversation with an employee of Multiple Sports News Service. According to this source, it was indicated that a Deputy Sheriff had come to the office of Multiple Sports News Service to serve papers and to take furniture in order to satisfy a lien of $495.00 against ALVIN WEISBERG, a former employee of this business enterprize. ROSENTHAL had indicated to the source that he would talk to Detective [redacted] of the Sheriff's Office and everything would be okay.

On May 21, 1965, ROSENTHAL, according to MM 972-C*, was in telephonic contact with [redacted] Miami attorney. He talked to the attorney about the recent lien and attachment on the property of Multiple Sports News Service.

b7C

On this same date, source advised that ROSENTHAL attempted to reach [redacted], New York, although he was unsuccessful.

On May 24, 1965, MM 972-C* advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL had been in telephonic conversation with [redacted] [redacted] Source said that ROSENTHAL wants [redacted] to make payment for the last two weeks that he owes to Multiple Sports News Service.

On May 26, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL, according to MM 972-C*, had held a conversation with STANLEY GREEN (employee of Multiple Sports News Service). Source stated that GREEN had told ROSENTHAL that account #40 had quit obtaining service and it was reflected that ABRAHAM GEVIRTZ, aka "The Governor", from New York City, had quit obtaining the "line".

On this date, source advised that ROSENTHAL had inquired from GREEN how many books [redacted] was picking up from the service. GREEN commented 65. GREEN also stated that #16 (MARTY KANE) had picked up 4 books.

On May 29, 1965, source advised that ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted MARTY KANE. He inquired after telephone numbers used b[redacted] in his bookmaking operation. The following numbers were heard repeated:

[redacted]

b6
b7C

On this date, source advised that ROSENTHAL had spoken with JOHN PROKOS. ROSENTHAL was inquiring if PROKOS had calle[redacted] or account [redacted] Source said that ROSENTHAL reflected that they would have to make other arrangements about callin[redacted] from the outside.

Source further advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL and STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service) had been in conversation this date. GREEN had reflected that he received a call from account #312 (ANGELO KAPLAN). This account number evidentally questioned if there was any "heat" in Miami from the authorities.

On June 1, 1965, source advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL had been in telephonic conversation with STAN GREEN. He instructed GREEN to call account [redacted] telephone number [redacted] Maryland.

On June 2, 1965, ROSENTHAL, according to source, was telephonically contacted by JOE NESLINE. ROSENTHAL reflected that he was glad JOE was back in town and that "Fat TONY" (TONY SALERNO) just came in town and was staying over at the Sea Gull. ROSENTHAL reflected that he was going to contact DAVIE YARAS this afternoon and would give [redacted] message.

On June 3, 1965, MM 972-C advised ROSENTHAL and JOHN "THE GREEK" PROKOS engaged in a lengthy conversation. PROKOS related to ROSENTHAL that #7 (JOSEPH AMDURSKY) in Norfolk told him that he did not feel like paying any money to Multiple Sports News Service for "line" information. AMDURSKY reportedly told PROKOS that he was getting the "line" and playing bets with PROKOS and not with the service.

FLA

ROSENTHAL commented that #7 was no good and besides is now trying to "cut our throats after we went out of our way by making street calls to provide him with the 'line'".

PROKOS said that on Wednesday he told #7 that he owed $2555.00 and he should send this amount to the bar (Athens Bar, Miami, Florida) and thereafter he should not call Miami any more.

On June 19, 1965, MM 972-C* advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL and STANLEY GREEN had an extended conversation on this date. The substance of this conversation was to discuss some of the individuals now receiving "service" from Multiple Sports News Service and the following names and addresses were mentioned as the individuals currently receiving the "Monthly Baseball Journal" published by Multiple Sports News Service:

On June 23, 1965, source advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL had been in telephonic contact with Triple A Letter Service, Miami. ROSENTHAL asked an individual at this business establishment if colored paper can be copied. ROSENTHAL said that he was advised by someone in California that certain paper cannot be copied. ROSENTHAL was then heard to relate that red paper with black printing would be the ideal combination. (It is noted that Tiple A Letter Service is the printer for publications published by Multiple Sports Service).

On same date, source advised that ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MARTY KANE. ROSENTHAL had inquired how [redacted] were betting.

On June 29, 1965, STANLEY GREEN and FRANK ROSENTHAL were in conversation, according to source. GREEN advised ROSENTHAL that #4 (JOHN PROKOS, Miami bookmaker and odds-maker) is calling before 9:15 A.M. and this is too early as Mutt (MORTON KAUFMAN, handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service) does not relay the "line" until 9:30 A.M.

ROSENTHAL inquired if #4 is providing GREEN with accurate pitcher information. GREEN replied in the affirmative.

ROSENTHAL also inquired of GREEN if the procedure of having [redacted] [redacted] Multiple Sports News Service), make the morning call to Baltimore is working out. ROSENTHAL cautioned GREEN to avoid giving [redacted] Baltimore obsolete information. GREEN reflected that [redacted] [redacted] always calls him [redacted] before making the call to [redacted] in order to secure any late changes in the line of added pitchers.

GREEN related to ROSENTHAL that he had gotten $110.00 from KENNY (probably KEN HANNA, well-known Florida bookmaker) through "The Greek" (JOHN PROKOS).

b7C

On July 8, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL, according to source, was in telephonic contact with STANLEY GREEN. ROSENTHAL inquired if GREEN had received the "line" changes from "The Greek" (JOHN PROKOS).

Source advised on July 9, 1965, that ROSENTHAL had been in telephonic contact with account #10 (probably DAVIE YARAS). ROSENTHAL advised this individual that [redacted] [redacted] had been using his number for scores. ROSENTHAL stated that he would change DAVIE's number with Multiple Sports News Service.

On July 10, 1965, source advised that ROSENTHAL had held a lengthy conversation with JERRY ZAROWITZ. Source stated the two individuals discussed the bookmaking situation in Miami and ROSENTHAL had related that BECKLEY was winning big this week. He advised that [redacted] BECKLEY controls the money, Las Vegas gambler); [redacted] (probably [redacted] noted sports handicapper who was formerly from Toledo, Ohio, and now residing in the Miami area); and [redacted] in St. Louis (probably [redacted]

ROSENTHAL also had stated to ZAROWITZ that BECKLEY has got MARTY KANE working for him on a salary. ROSENTHAL was heard to comment that he believes MARTY gets a dollar a week and after the "ice" he is minus.

On July 11, 1965, source advised that ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MARTY KANE. ROSENTHAL inquired as to how [redacted] and "The Curtain" (JERRY ZAROWITZ) were betting. b6 b7C b7D

DETAILS:

GENERAL BACKGROUND

Multiple Sports News Service has been in business since March, 1963, and is located at 1090 79th Street, Room 12.

This "service" is in the business of furnishing "line" information, latest scores of sports events and other related handicapping information which is of value to bookmakers and bettors throughout the United States. The "service is currently furnishing information relative to Major League baseball.

During the baseball season, it has been the practice for STAN GREEN to arrive at the business address between 9:15 and 9:30 A.M. daily. The "line" is given out to the customers at 10:00 A.M.

GREEN will usually remain at the "service" until noon, at which time FRANK ROSENTHAL generally handles the afternoon hours. The time of his work is determined by the number of afternoon baseball games.

The "line" for night baseball games is usually furnished to customers at about 5:30 P.M. From 5:30 to 7:00 P.M., STAN GREEN is at the business address. b6 b7C

From 7:00 P.M. to the completion of all Major League baseball games [redacted] operates in the position of clerk and provides customers with inning by inning baseball scores.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

On [redacted] was observed entering a late model [redacted] bearing 1965 Florida license [redacted]. This car was parked in front of Dade Wholesale Imports, 372 N. E. 61st Street, Miami.

On [redacted] was observed at 9:50 A.M. leaving the address of 372 N. E. 61st Street in a late model [redacted] bearing the above mentioned license number. He then proceeded from this location to the shopping area at 79th Street and Biscayne Boulevard.

After a short lapse of time, he proceeded to the Miami National Bank, 8101 Biscayne Boulevard. He entered the bank at 10:00 A.M. and left about 10:10 A.M. He emerged from a pay telephone booth located in the bank on the south side of the building and entered his car and returned to his business address, 372 N. E. 61st Street.

b7C

Investigation reflects that the telephone number at the pay phone booth located at the Miami National Bank is 751-9279.

On July 16, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL was observed entering the business establishment of Dade Wholesale Imports, 372 N. E. 61st Street, Miami.

[redacted] was recontacted at the [redacted] Jacksonville, Florida, where he is [redacted] Prior to being interviewed, he was advised of his right to consult with an attorney, that he did not have to make a statement and any he did make could be used against him in a court of law. No threats or promises were made and he voluntarily furnished the following information:

He said he is still residing in a duplex apartment at [redacted] Florida, with his wife who is also employed at [redacted] He said that in addition [redacted] [redacted] apartment at [redacted] Florida, and [redacted] of these properties. He also [redacted] area and is currently trying to get a mortgage company to loan him some money in order that he could build apartments [redacted] [redacted]

He said at no time in the past has he operated a numbers lottery, financially backed a numbers lottery or sports book betting operation nor has he taken "layoffs" regarding this type of gambling. He denied that any financial backing has been provided to him for gambling purposes by anyone in Jacksonville or Miami, Florida, or anywhere.

He claims he has not had any contact in over a year with JOCK FINNEY and does not know his whereabouts and does not believe this individual resides in the beach area. He was confronted with information that FINNEY [redacted] [redacted] presumably for gambling purposes during parts of October and November, 1964.

On 4/7/65 at Macksonville, Florida File # Jacksonville 162-51

by SA [redacted] nbk:moh Date dictated 4/9/65

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He, at first, denied this allegation, stating [redacted] during Hurricane Dora and would not have been liveable at that time. After thinking about this matter further, he stated that on occasions when [redacted] were vacant, he did mention it to friends and told them it would be [redacted] [redacted] to "shack up" with a girl. He said he may have mentioned this to JOCK FINNEY but definitely did not know FINNEY had been using the apartment regularly nor that he used it for booking sports bets.

He admitted during the past football season having placed football bets with JOCK and with other persons, whom he did not desire to identify. He said he has known JOCK for years and first met him in Kansas City before they came to Jacksonville. He said JOCK is originally from Kansas City. He claims he has never [redacted] in the past. He does not know [redacted] loaned JOCK nor when [redacted] any money. He said JOCK had given him a card with a telephone number for contacting him regarding the placing of football bets. He claims he does not recall the telephone number or the present whereabouts of this card.

[redacted] related he still frequently travels to Miami Beach, Florida, to attend horse races where he is a consistent loser regarding betting. He said he will possibly be going to Miami this week end and that he placed his bets at the paramutual windows at the track.

He related that through his frequent trips to Miami tracks, he has become acquainted with several race track touts but claims he does not know these persons by name. He said he has not had any contact at the tracks or anywhere else with [redacted] whom he has known to be a gambler in the past.

He said several years ago, while in Miami, he recalled purchasing either a newspaper or magazine which contained an advertisement from a Miami firm listing telephone number and soliciting business for persons desiring "line information" regarding sporting events. He said since this time he has called this telephone number on many occasions and has received "line information" regarding football, basketball and baseball. He denied he has ever paid any money for this service and said this firm does not take bets on these sport events. He said he does not recall the name of this firm or the telephone number but believes he may have this telephone number at his residence.

He said when he telephones this firm that the person who answers does not identify the company and only answers, hello. He said this firm claims they prepare their own line information.

He related he attended the Gator Bowl Basketball Tournament during the latter part of 1964 at the Jacksonville Coliseum and while there called this firm in Miami for a point spread regarding two of the teams which were playing that evening. He said that they did not have the game listed but asked him if a certain player would be playing and based on this information they furnished him with a point spread. Regarding this basketball tournament, he said he placed bets with some other persons who attended the game with him. He advised he has also placed basketball bets with others but did not identify these persons.

He related that on some occasions he may have furnished this football line information to JOCK FINNEY but that he never asked nor did he receive any money from JOCK for this information and actually furnished it to JOCK more as a way of bragging to show that he could get a good "line".

He said he has never had any connection with [redacted] regarding numbers lottery. He related a couple of years ago, when "RED DAN" (DAN JOYNER) died that he mentioned to [redacted] a Jacksonville gambler, that he would like to [redacted] business. He related [redacted] told him that "RED DAN's" numbers business could possibly [redacted] made arrangements for him to discuss this matter with [redacted] He related that shortly thereafter he met with [redacted] on a Saturday at a place, address not recalled, where [redacted] in connection with a Cuba numbers lottery. He said he did not see [redacted] business as he did not want to be close enough to the scene where he would actually be a participant [redacted] would take a financial beating as he did not believe he could trust anyone to [redacted] [redacted] He said he has not placed any numbers bets nor had any gambling association with [redacted] and had not seen him for about a year until this past Monday, when he, [redacted] was parking his car in the downtown area of Jacksonville. He said at that time he observed [redacted] [redacted] He said [redacted] came over to his car after finishing a conversation with [redacted]

He said that [redacted] who is a close friend of his, and a member of the same club, is another person who is consistently placing bets on sporting events.

He related that due to [redacted] he has become well acquainted with many prosperous people who engage in betting and have the funds to do so.

He said he definitely does not place any bets outside of the State of Florida and does not give nor receive any "line information" outside of Florida.

He claimed that from time to time persons have contacted him with a request that he book their gambling business. He said he does not know where these people have been getting the impression that he has been connected with this activity or would have the financial resources to handle it.

He said he does not believe he has violated any Federal gamvling laws and that he desires to cooperate with the FBI.

[redacted] related he wants to do what is right but does not want to be a "fink" in furnishing names of persons with whom he has been gambling.

Date April 26, 1965

THOMAS WEST WALKER was contacted at his residence, 2547 Pineridge Road, Jacksonville, Florida. Prior to being interviewed, he was advised by SA [redacted] of his right to consult with an attorney, that he did not have to make a statement and any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law. He voluntarily furnished the following information:

He related that his wife, HELEN WALKER, died eleven years ago and he resides at his address with his [redacted] He said he has not been in good health during the past three years and has not had any legitimate employment during that period. He last operated Tommy's Gift Shop in the 3700 block of Hendricks Avenue for about six years until three years ago.

He has been making a living taking "off track" dog bets regarding Greyhound races in Jacksonville and Daytona Beach, Florida, and placing these bets at the track. His volume of business was about $100 a night, but is now practically nothing. His dog betting business has greatly decreased due to recent interviews of some of his customers by the FBI and these persons are now afraid to bet with him and have passed the word on to some of his other customers that the FBI is investigating him. He is currently in extremely poor financial condition due to the decrease in the gambling business and is trying to have his residence refinanced in order to pay some of his many debts. He has a balance of $4 in his checking account maintained at the Beach National Bank, Jacksonville Beach, Florida.

He was advised that the investigation has disclosed that he was booking "off track" dog bets and was not placing all these bets at the paramutual window at the track, but was handling this business himself. He would not admit nor deny it, but related he did not know what to say as he was afraid he would get in trouble.

On 4/14/65 at Jacksonville, Florida File # Jacksonville 166-97

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He stated that there has not been any interstate travel or interstate communications utilized in any gambling activity in which he may have been involved. He has only about one-half dozen customers regarding dog bets and most of these persons reside at Jacksonville Beach, Florida, and the FBI has already talked to two of them, [redacted] [redacted] He named [redacted] a small restaurant at Jacksonville Beach as another person who placed dog bets with him usually in the amount of $8 to $10 a night. He claimed these persons were not sellers for him, but that some of the money they bet was for friends of theirs. In the past, he has provided official dog track programs to his customers in order that they could make their selection regarding bets and he received these bets either personally or by telephone. He has never operated a "Cuba," "Total" or "Stocks and Bonds" numbers lottery, but has taken some "Cuba" bets amounting to about $40 a week and trades this "Cuba" business with another gambler for dog bets. He said he does not receive any proceeds from the "Cuba" lottery and did not desire to identify the other person who was involved.

In the past he has handled football lottery cards and until several years ago had been getting them from [redacted] He believes [redacted] had the cards printed in DeLand, Florida. He did not admit he handled football parley cards during the past season but said he believes one of the [redacted] was distributing them and that they were printed in the Springfield area of Jacksonville, Florida. He said he has no information as to the source of the "line information" used in these cards.

He has received "line information" regarding sporting events indirectly through friends and believes this "line" originates from a firm located on 79th Street Northeast, Miami, Florida, and that possibly the name of this firm is the Multiple Sports Service. He said he has never furnished any "line information" to persons outside the State of Florida.

He is acquainted with [redacted] [redacted] on Hendricks Avenue, Jacksonville. [redacted] numbers or take bets on sporting events, but places bets on football and basketball games [redacted] name unknown, who resides in Miami, Florida. [redacted] allegedly won a considerable sum of money on football games this past season and had good "line information." He does not know the source of [redacted] but believes that possibly it may have come from [redacted] in Miami.

WALKER has been a resident of Jacksonville for many years and about fifteen years ago when Jacksonville was "wide open" he worked for [redacted] [redacted] on Julia Street. WALKER does not believe [redacted] is involved in any gambling business at this time. He booked bets on horse races at [redacted] establishment and JOCK FINNEY worked with him. He said he had not seen FINNEY in a long time until about two weeks ago when he saw him at the local dog track. He has no information whether FINNEY is booking sports bets but said he heard FINNEY was broke and FINNEY was at the dog track looking for someone who owed him some money.

Mr. ALVIN WEISBERG voluntarily appeared at the Philadelphia Office of the FBI, 500 Widener Building. This appearance was the result of a telephone conversation on this date between Mr. WEISBERG and SA JOHN C. MURRAY at which time Mr. WEISBERG stated he would be willing to talk to SAs of the FBI but did not wish to talk at the residence of friends with whom he lives.

Mr. WEISBERG was advised by SA JOHN F. PHELAN that he need not make a statement and that any statement he may make may be used against him in a court of law. He was advised he could contact an attorney of his choice or anyone prior to making any statement. He was also advised if he cannot afford a lawyer, the Judge would get one for him.

Mr. WEISBERG stated he was aware of his rights as he had been interviewed by SAs of the FBI as well as the Senate Subcommittee headed by Senator MC CLELLAN. He said he was perfectly willing to listen to the questions and will not give any false answers but may decline to answer some of the questions.

He stated he presently resides with [redacted] [redacted] He said that prior to leaving Miami in April 1965, he telephonically contacted [redacted] He said he also called Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia 215 KI 6-4500, concerning condition of an uncle, a patient at that time. September 12, 1932 at Philadelphia, Pa. He is 5'6" in height and weighs 190 pounds. He is of stocky build with black receding hair. He admitted arrests in gambling raids in Miami, Fla., and Dover, Del. He said he is a gambler and gambles on all sporting events.

He furnished the following account of his activities since 1957:

In 1957, he and his mother moved from Philadelphia, Pa., to Miami, Fla. He was, prior to this move, employed as a cab driver by Yellow Cab Company.

Upon arrival in Miami Beach, Fla., he andhis mother resided 4218 Collins Avenue, moving a year or so later to 6900 block (exact address not recalled) Rue Versailles. A year later they moved to 7333 Carlisle and later to 7301 Carlisle. For the past two years, he has resided 7207 Bay Drive and had telephone 865-7947.

WEISBERG said that in 1957 he learned through the gambling element in Miami that Multiple Sports News Service needed an employee who had ticker tape experience. He applied and was hired by FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL. His salary was $375 per month and received a bonus of about $200 annually. His place of employment was in the office located at 1070 North 179th Street. This employment continued uninterrupted until April 13, 1965 when he left without giving notice.

WEISBERG stated that during his employment as clerk with Multiple Sports News Service, his duties consisted of answering the phones and giving out "line" information as well as results of sporting events. This service covered college and professional football, college and professional basketball, and professional baseball. No horses or numbers. In order to perform these duties it was necessary for him to be familiar with the identity of all customers and be able to immediately recognize the caller's voice. Other duties consisted of physically contacting customers and collect from them for services rendered by phone. The collecting was made usually in the afternoons except Saturday and Sunday.

He stated that other employees in this office were

FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL and STANLEY GREEN. GREEN and ROSENTHAL handled all incoming mail. GREEN wrote the paychecks including ROSENTHAL's check.

As to "line" information and results, the "line" information was prepared in printed form and on his telephone table when he came to work daily. He claims he does not know who prints the "line" information or where it is printed. He said he is not familiar with J. K. Sports Journal and does not know if the "line" sheet he used is made up from other publications or not.

WEISBERG stated that each customer calling Multiple Sports News Service had been assigned a number for identification. He declined to identify any customer by number. He said that most of his customers ran accounts to $40.00 to $50.00 weekly, some larger. GREEN also answered telephone requests from customers and gave out "line" and result information. GREEN was so employed on April 13, 1965 when WEISBERG "skipped" out.

WEISBERG stated that the only publication put out by Multiple Sports News Service was a paper by the same name. During baseball season the paper is sent out daily. During football season on Friday and Saturday and during basketball season on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays it is sent out. These dates vary for reasons unknown to WEISBERG.

WEISBERG emphasized he was an employee only, made no policy, and was informed very little of the details of the operation.

WEISBERG stated that he knows JOSEPH ARNDURSKY as a customer of Multiple Sports News Service. He declined to furnish ARNDURSKY's identification number. He said he never asked ARNDURSKY where he was calling from. He declined to say (1) whether or not he telephonically contacted ARNDURSKY at Norfolk on any occasion or (2) whether or not he accepted bets from ARNDURSKY and placed them with JOHN PROKAS; however, he stated he has placed bets with PROKAS as well as other bookmakers in Miami.

WEISBERG stated that PROKAS is a customer of Multiple Sports News Service; however, he does not recall his number. He advised that PROKAS was undoubtedly assigned a number but as he was very familiar with PROKAS' voice, the number was unnecessary.

WEISBERG stated that MIKE COPPOLA is a known gambler although he knows nothing concerning his personal business, only what is common knowledge. He said that he has no reason to believe COPPOLA is or is not the financial backer of Multiple Sports News Service. He said that the same applies to JOE NESLINE. He said he does not know CHARLES TOURINE nor is the name familiar. He said he does not know who backs Multiple Sports News Service.

WEISBERG stated he does not recall anyone answering the name of [redacted] employed by ELLIOT PRICE. He said that he could not identify a customer of Multiple Sports News Service identified as [redacted] He again pointed out that customers could call STANLEY GREEN direct at Multiple Sports News Service and there were probably customers who called only GREEN.

WEISBERG stated that he is familiar with a customer known as "Governor," first name ABRAHAM, last name not recalled. He said "Governor" is extremely wealth and owns one square block in downtown New York City, N.Y. He spends six months each year in Miami and during that time bets heavily on basketball. He is a customer of Multiple Sports News Service during his stay in Miami but does not bet on any sports except basketball. He said he does not definitely know of any incident in which "Governor" placed bets on telephonically received "line" information from Multiple Sports News Service from New York, N.Y.

WEISBERG stated he knew of no customer of Multiple Sports News Service from Philadelphia, Pa., and does not know a [redacted] who could possibly be associated with Multiple Sports News Service as a customer. He said that Multiple Sports News Service had no customer known as [redacted] to the best of his knowledge. He said that he would decline to state whether Multiple Sports News Service had any out-of-state customers.

WEISBERG said he still has the 1964 Buick, financed by Associated Discounts, Inc., Miami, Fla. He said he has an equity of $1,200 in the car and is three payments behind at this time. He said he plans to renew payments. He has received no inquiry regarding this car.

WEISBERG related the following:

In November 1964, his financial status was normal, placing bets with bookmakers all over town. His gambling credit with bookies was good. He had a bad loosing streak, kept much of the money he collected from Multiple Sports News Service customers, borrowed money from people he declined to identify, placed larger bets on credit, but continued to lose. He said that by April 1965 he was indebted to STANLEY GREEN $2,350 which he still owes. He is "short" about $1,000 in Multiple Sports News Service collection funds. He owes about $7,000 to other bookies and lenders who he will not identify at this time. He said that pressure from creditors caused him to "skip out" just after midnight on April 13, 1965 when he finished work. He said he plans to repay Multiple Sports News Service and GREEN. He said he hopes to pay all debts if he is permitted to and is able to pay it from his wages. He said that his creditors include some who may not give him an opportunity to repay. He said he has heard nothing from any creditor but he knows they will not permit him to get by without paying one way or another. He said that he now feels that had he remained in Miami and explained to each creditor his losses, he may have been able to work out some arrangements with them but now that he has left the area without contacting any of them, he knows he has forfeited his rights for any consideration from them. He said that he definitely fears he is in danger. He feels that some of his creditors will take some action. He said he is not afraid of ROSENTHAL or GREEN or PROKAS but others he "went sour" on. He emphatically declined to identify bookmakers and skylocks to whom he has become indebted.

WEISBERG further stated that in 1964 (possibly November), he went to Washington, D.C., to testify before the U.S. Senate Subcommittee, headed by Senator MC CLELLAN, investigating gambling racketeers in sports. He said he answered many questions but took the "Fifth" on most questions.

He said that he would not welcome a subpoena to Miami as he felt he would endanger his life by traveling back to Miami. He said that if a subpoena is issued for him he may "take the Fifth" again on some questions concerning Multiple Sports News Service as well as his own activities on a local Miami basis. He said he has never purchased a Federal Wagering Tax Stamp.

WEISBERG added that he would like to reconsider some of the questions asked this date concerning which he declined an answer. He said he would consider return and answer some of them. He said he does not want to appear uncooperative; however, his position with the gambling element in Miami puts him in a situation in which he can further endanger his life by furnishing specific names, dates, and places. He advised he will furnish his new unlisted telephone number as soon as installed and will be available for contact by June 19, 1965.
